Believing that we all suffer from at least some emotional wounds as a result of our past experiences, Dr. Robert Bleck set out to devise a recovery therapy to aid his clients in "coming to terms" with those past hurts. The result has come to be known as Source Completion Therapy (SCT). "To live a healthy and enriched life, our past emotional wounds-like bodily infections-must be cleansed and allowed to heal. Source Completion Therapy is designed to do just that." Dr. Bleck, Chapter 1 Incorporating all the effective, significant psychological theories widely in use today, SCT takes us on a journey of personal exploration and emotional healing built on the theory that we can only break free of the disabling effects of our hurts if we (first) become fully aware of their true origins, (next) re-experience the trauma, and (finally) complete the healing process by confronting the source of the pain. The text is completed by an easy-to-use self-hypnosis script designed to bring on the state of relaxation necessary for reliving and re-experiencing the events that created our symptoms. Options for giving the pain back to its source (completing) are also offered.

Are you living with questions such as, "Why does God allow bad things to happen to good people?" ... "Why hasn't God answered my prayer?" and "Oh Lord Jesus...how is it that life can seem so difficult?" "Answers to Our Everyday Questions," will teach you how to find God's answers, to the everyday questions that attempt to keep us in a place of bondage. Are you facing a difficult time in your life and all you seem to be filled with are questions that have no answers? In "Answers to Our Everyday Questions,” you will find 35 questions and answers that are answered in devotional form. Within each of the 35 devotions, you will receive a Bible reading that is based on each question, along with quotes and finally...the answer to the question, which are short and to the point devotions. Come and truly experience a book that can replace discouragement and deep, dark moments of despair, with Biblical answers that can help us to connect more deeply with God, rather than the problems and questions we face in life. “Answers to Our Everyday Questions” can be read as daily devotionals or daily readings and will become one of the best inspirational books; that will help you to discover biblical answers that will keep your mind and heart free, from the questions that Satan attempts to use, as a means of keeping us in bondage.

Editorial Reviews: A Must Read for Those Going through Pain A touching, authentic, and powerful story of a young Christian woman's painful, yet faith-filled, cancer journey. Unique perspectives from her devoted husband, beloved sister, and loyal friend are interspersed with her deeply personal account. This book will encourage your heart, challenge your thinking, and strengthen your faith or invite you to seek out a relationship with Dalia's Lord Jesus Christ. Kim Coburn, an avid reader, breast cancer survivor and aspiring writer Sacrificial Love Wins out over Pain and Isolation Your pain is not a waste takes you through the journey of a beautiful young girl who had no care in the world until she had to face the most dreaded news: she was battling cancer even the most expert physicians had no clue how to treat. An enormously painful experience filled with failure, loss of hope, and feelings of isolation, but also amazing support from special people in her life that God used to carry her through this darkness as she grew stronger in faith, more driven, and full of purpose and determination to help others through this book. It's such an inspiring story of faith and Christian sacrificial love as it should be that happened in our modern day. I can attest to how true and powerful every word in this book is as someone who has been there as her doctor and friend, and someone who knows or has met all the main characters of the book. Dalia has simply retold her story in this book in the very same words she had spoken to me or picked up the phone to share some news. This couldn't be told better. Dr. Viviane Bishay, Grace's primary care physician and friend About the Author D.N. Grace was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer in 2016 when she was 28 years old. Throughout her story, she shows how to hold onto faith during the darkest of times, how to search for hope, and how to understand the purpose of pain. This true story of Dalia's inspiring journey holds a multitude of life lessons. Dalia and her husband, Remon, along with their sweet dog, Hodor, live in Orlando, Florida.

This edited collection about good practice for mental health chaplains and other related professionals looks at how spirituality is viewed across mental health fields. It identifies what mental health chaplaincy is, how mental health chaplaincy interacts with other organisations like the NHS, and what good practice means with examples of positive and fulfilling experiences in mental health settings. The chapters consider some of the main issues of working with the mental health community, such as the place of volunteers, the recovery process, religious diversity and patient safety. They are followed by uplifting case studies, including service user perspectives, to provide a valuable overall insight into mental health chaplaincy and its context in wider mental health services.

Twice as many women as men will experience depression sometime in their lifetime, and episodes for women are likely to start at earlier ages, last longer, and recur more frequently, according to the American Academy of Family Physicians. Many women are given medication to treat the disease, but medication alone does not always address the underlying emotions which trouble the mind and spirit. Counselor Elyse Fitzpatrick and Dr. Laura Hendrickson provide biblical guidance on how to balance medical intervention with biblical encouragement.

Will Medicine Stop the Pain?

What do you do when one day you return home and life as you knew it had changed forever? Well I can answer that, the only thing you can do is trust God to get you through it. Most people would probably not share the things that I'm going to share in this memoir. In fear of being judged or even embarrassed. I choose not to feel neither, I believe that what I experienced, many have experienced and refuse to talk about. I know God allowed me to get through the most difficult time in my life, so that I can speak to his people about it. So that they can be encouraged to go through what life throws at us and come out on the other side, whole, happy and healed. Don't get me wrong, it was challenging being so vulnerable, but I believe God wanted me that way so that I can reach the broken so that they can see his faithfulness. There were times that I did not think I would make it through this devastation, but I continued to trust God throughout the process. I am still healing daily, but I am so much further along this long journey. God is truly amazing, and his grace has been sufficient in my life. For those who can relate to what I'm about to share, my heart goes out to you. No one should ever have to endure this pain. But if this is why I had to experience this, to help others, then, so be it, I am a willing vessel.
