This book brings into focus the resurrection message of the New Testament. The chapters demonstrate how the resurrection both provides the basis for joyful living now despite the shadow of death and undergirds the Christian belief in a future after death.

The Life Worth Living

Life is for Living Phrases quotes and sayings have influenced us for centuries. Our thoughts and actions are a result of what we have heard and our subsequent reactions to them. What we are taught and how we retain and exhibit that information results in how we perceive life and how we are perceived throughout life. I have always appreciated a succinct, meaningful phrase that could positively be applied to specific areas of life or to life in general. Some phrases and quotes have stayed with me throughout my lifetime and have shaped my thoughts and actions as I tried to stay true to their meaning. Some phrases seem to be a given, such as All men are created equal, five words from Thomas Jefferson as he began the Declaration of Independence, which helped shape the beginning of a new nation. Another American president, John Kennedy, told us, "Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country." Before we entered WWII, Franklin Roosevelt gave us We have nothing to fear but fear itself. Descartes, the famous French philosopher and mathematician told us, I think, therefore I am. Martin Luther Kings famous speech gave us the historic words I have a dream. These words were spoken years ago but remain just as vital today as they were then. Socrates was a treasure trove of meaningful quotations such as, An unexamined life is not worth living, Know thyself, and my favorite quote from Socrates, He who is not content with what he has, would not be content with what he would like to have. Former First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt said, Great minds discuss ideas, average minds discuss events, small minds discuss people. However inspirational and encouraging these and other quotes may be, I feel they fell on deaf ears. I have a great concern on the negative way people interact and treat one another on a daily basis. I am not referring to the major offenses such as murderers, assaults, and sexual predation. I think that everyday encounters one has with a complete stranger, and often a person one is friendly with, have deteriorated. Often you see and hear one person verbally abusing and degrading another in everyday conversation, and the derogatory comments are returned as if expected. This interaction is not only committed with strangers but is commonplace with friends as a normal manner of corresponding with one another. There is a lot of rude behavior and certainly no acceptance given to other persons choices in life. There is no respect or kindness. I see a culture of selfishness, self-indulgence, a self-sense of importance, and unjustified expectations. There is no mutual respect for one another, no ethics, and virtually no outward morality. This behavior is extended to strangers as well. People say this is the new norm. I think not more like a disappointing societal regression. This is a misstep in our culture that must be addressed and corrected so we may fully continue on our moral evolutionary path. I have assembled a few quotations of my own that are a result of my personal contemplation and experience. My writings are the personal inference of my own thoughts. Like all quotes, phrases, or songs, my words may have no effect on you, or they may cause you to think of what is said or even cause you to change an attitude or belief in a different positive direction. Hopefully my thoughts and quotations will have a positive impact.

Hello, Thank you for your interest in this book. In your hands is an inspirational guide that I am confident will help us on our journey through this life and time. You are embarking on a tour into a wellspring of knowledge that only God could have provided. Every day, our Deliverer whispers his instructions to us. Sadly, only a few can hear his voice through the hubbub of our hectic, hurried society, and even fewer pay attention. This book began with one such whisper. In 2014, on a Saturday morning in early May, I got out of bed and decided to relax by taking a familiar, leisurely drive to reflect on life. But God had other plans for me that day. As I walked into the bathroom, a soft, breeze-like sound whispered into my ear, and I paused. Jesus said, "Start to write." I remained still, expecting to hear more, then turned slightly, but that was all I heard that morning.

However, this inspirational resource is the result of that divine prompt. The writing process wasn't initiated because I made a mindful decision to compose this book. Instead, this book of encouragement came about because I was supernaturally instructed to write. This devotional guide is an attempt to share what the Lord has revealed to me, and it is my pleasure to do so. Jesus loves you!

These are some of the excerpts from the book. • Why are we born? This question poses a great challenge for many of us. The best answer to this would be..... • The poor long for riches, the rich long for heaven, but the wise long for a peaceful mind. • In order to perform optimally you need to nurture your body. You wouldn't fill your car with sludge, leave it in the garage for five years, and then expect it to win a race. • Every day you are impacting the world, and every day you are creating your life through your thoughts. Think whatever you like, big or small, rich or poor, fair or unfair, and those thoughts will strive to become the things and events of your life. It's an immutable law. • Every human action is either driven by fear or by greed. Beyond the shadow of a doubt both are negative vibrations. One of the best ways you can MAKE yourself happier, in all your attempts, is begin to come from a positive vibration and that's love. • Your expectations can literally influence your real life experiences. So be aware and consciously choose to create positive expectation with everything you do... • Do what you love and enjoyment will follow. Do what you love and you will feel more fulfilled. Do what you love and the money will seem less relevant. Do what you love, and you'll never work a day in your life. Alongside, love what you do and you come out a shining star. • Enjoy the process and be willing to accept what comes your way. No matter how successful you are, if you have not stopped to enjoy yourself along the way, your success is half-full. Secret of happiness is not found in receiving more, but in developing the capacity to enjoy more. • Mistakes come from: acting in ignorance or in innocence or through carelessness or acting hastily or acting in fear or acting in worry or acting in doubt or acting under anxiety.
