In communities in and around Cobán, Guatemala, a small but steadily growing number of members of the Q'eqchi' Maya Roman Catholic parish of San Felipe began self-identifying as members of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal. Their communities dramatically split as mainstream and charismatic

Catholic parishioners who had been co-congregants came to view each other as religiously distinct and problematic "others." In Guarded by Two Jaguars, Eric Hoenes del Pinal tells the story of this dramatic split and in so doing addresses the role that language and gesture have played in the construction of religious identity. Drawing on a range of methods from linguistic and cultural anthropology, the author examines how the introduction of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal movement in the parish produced a series of debates between parishioners that illustrate the fundamentally polyvocal nature of Catholic Christianity. This work examines how intergroup differences are produced through dialogue, contestation, and critique. It shows how people's religious affiliations are articulated not in isolation but through interaction with each other. Although members of these two congregations are otherwise socially similar, their distinct interpretations of how to be a "good Catholic" led them to adopt significantly different norms of verbal and nonverbal communication. These differences became the idiom through which the two groups contested the meaning of being Catholic and Indigenous in contemporary Guatemala, addressing larger questions about social and religious change.

Der Name Gandhi ist zum Synonym für gewaltlosen Widerstand und zivilen Ungehorsam geworden. In seiner berühmten Biografie legt Gandhi sich und der Welt Rechenschaft ab über sein Leben in Südafrika und Indien und den langen Kampf für die Unabhängigkeit Indiens, der ihn weit über das Land hinaus zur "großen Seele" - Mahatma - machte. Eines der bedeutendsten politischen und spirituellen Manifeste des 20. Jahrhunderts ist für unsere Zeit neu zu entdecken. Als der junge Anwalt Gandhi 1893 mit dem Zug nach Pretoria fuhr, verwies ihn der Schaffner von der ersten Klasse in den Gepäckwagen. Der Schock dieser Diskriminierung bestärkte Gandhi in einem politischen Kampf, der für ihn zugleich zu einem Ringen um die richtige Lebensweise wurde. Er leistete ein Keuschheitsgelübde, nahm nur rohe, ungewürzte Speisen zu sich oder fastete, lebte auf der Tolstoi-Farm in Südafrika und in indischen Aschrams in besitzlosen Gemeinschaften und entwickelte nicht zuletzt gewaltlose Widerstandsformen gegen Rassendiskriminierung und Kolonialismus, die Protestbewegungen auf der ganzen Welt inspirierten. All das nannte Gandhi seine "Experimente mit der Wahrheit". In seiner Autobiographie legt er sich und der Welt Rechenschaft ab von seinem Leben in Südafrika und Indien und dem gewaltlosen Kampf, der zur Unabhängigkeit Indiens führte und ihn weit über Indien hinaus zur "Großen Seele" - "Mahatma" - machte. Eines der bedeutendsten politischen und spirituellen Manifeste des 20. Jahrhunderts ist für unsere Zeit neu zu
