In his family's eyes, Layne Marks has always been a failure. The undesirable sheep living in his more prosperous brother's shadow. He still struggles to maintain a steady employment or place to live at the age of 26. Anywhere else in the world, just another common person, but not in Eumain. Imperfection is no longer tolerated in Eumain. Both a bank robber and a homeless person will suffer the same punishment in this situation-they will both be labelled Rejects and taken away, never to be seen again. The residents have no way of knowing what will happen to them. According to a persistent rumour, the Rejects have been exiled to a remote, long-forgotten place because they are unfit to live anywhere else - just like themselves. There, all of the criminals of all degrees must rely on one another in order to survive in this harsh and perilous environment that is home to a variety of previously unheard of monsters. Layne Marks has always been warned that he was close to becoming deemed unfit to reside in Eumain, and that it was only a matter of time.
