Lord, please continue to have mercy on humanity. You have made provisions for everything we need in this world and the world to come. Yet many people although desire good life, are suffering, some are confused, others are desperate, families are broken down, our nation is struggling to cope, many people are lost in spiritual matters and sin. In this book, the author's main argument is that God, in his unflinching love for humanity, has already provided what people are frantically seeking in life. What people need to do is to turn to the Holy Scriptures for guidance. This book can be of such help. You see, when life is calm, our foundations don't seem to matter. But when crisis come, our foundations are tested. In this book, the author also argues that it is a waste of time and effort for people to build their lives on a faulty foundation. Jesus describes God's principles as a solid foundation for people to build their lives on. We are strangers in this world; therefore we need someone who knows the journey of life to guide us. God is the creator of this world, and He alone knows the in and out of this world. His principles provide guidance for a perfect life. The attempts by some groups of people to suppress the knowledge of God in the society have not been very helpful in many ways, although they could not succeed. For example, these people could not provide the society with any viable alternative guiding principles on how people should live their lives. This has led many people to turn to wrong sources for guidance, sometimes with very little success or no success at all leading to a life of despair, hopelessness, and failure. Because of this suppression of God's word, there seems to be famine in our society, famine of truth, famine of the word of God. There is also darkness in our society, many people are confused and some do not know what to do with their lives. But the word of God is light, it gives understanding, it gives hope, it provides guidance on spiritual matters, the salvation of the human soul, and solutions to all our problems. Sometimes, life is easier and beautiful if you know what to do in any situation you find yourself. Many people desire a good family life, peace, joy, hope, self discipline, strength, encouragement, a connection with 'a higher being' that transcends human existence and meaning to life in their spiritual quest. As you read this book, know that I am praying for you for all these blessings in Jesus name, amen. Anthony Bright Atwam. According to scripture, the church is the salt and the light of this world. But the church seems to have locked the resources God has given her to be given to the world in the room and has put the keys in her pocket while the world is suffering. One of the things the church needs to do is to start to unpack and release the resources God has given her to meet the needs of postmodern spiritual quest. Anthony Bright Atwam.

We have lost sight of the principles of life that guide us to holistic living. These principles are rooted in the Bible and have not changed through the centuries. They are rules without cracks, essential qualities, and the way people can live a dedicated life to themselves, others, and God. They provide freedom in how to live and direction in how to treat others. In every discipline, industry, or profession there is a language which is unique to its purpose, and this is the language for living a fulfilled life. It reveals to individuals, families, groups, churches, and businesses many essential principles to right living which are of inestimable value if used, and can cause a life to thrive. Each principle uses a story in Scripture to bring the principles to life and make easier to remember. The principle remains fresh in the context of the story and brings insight into how to apply it to life today. A principled life cannot be over-rated. It is a key element in the development of maturity in many areas of life.

We are not only members of the Church, but also of the Kingdom of God. When Jesus came, He told us that the Kingdom of God was at hand, upon us, and is coming. If He made so many references to the Kingdom of God, it is then our responsibility to learn how to live in the Kingdom of God. It is only the only way we can prosper and live in victory; for the Scriptures say that our citizenship is in heaven (Philippians 3:20). In this publication, we will explore seven foundational concepts concerning the Christian life as citizens of God's kingdom. In understanding these concepts, one will live a successful life on the Christian journey.

there must be more--there is! The present truth now being made clear to the body of Christ is that God's purpose has always been for His kingdom to be released on this earth through His multi-membered body, the church. It is His intent for His presence to be released on the earth to an extent that will increase from glory to glory, until "as the waters fill the sea, the earth will be filled with an awareness of the glory of the Lord" (Habakkuk 2:14). Living In Kingdom Authority is a word of inspiration, empowering the believer to demonstrate the miraculous power of Jesus as his sent representatives. Beginning with Adam as God's glory bearer to creation, we show that by Jesus' restoration, this same purpose has been given back to the believers. With a solid biblical basis, we present practically what it means: to be in His image, to be apostolic and how to effectively demonstrate the power of His kingdom. Living In Kingdom Authority challenges some of the limiting religious traditions of modern Christianity, beginning by revealing what the bible says about tradition and its effects. Further, we counter the idea of the modern self-centered, consumerist, bless me, escapist gospel with the Gospels true purpose of Kingdom restoration. Living In Kingdom Authority will inspire, shock and challenge the believer to rise above their nominal christianity and step into the role they have been given by Jesus as his sent representative!

Adherents of every other religion must "work" to reach up to their god. The God of Christianity reaches out to His human creation and takes the initiative to form a personal relationship with each one. J.D. Fleck paints a beautiful portrait of this extraordinary interaction between God and mankind in "God knows my name" and the nine other essays that constitute the book, In Pursuit of God. He calls this effort a "pursuit", with a goal of helping each follower of Christ form a closer relationship with their Creator, Savior and Lord. Each essay is a treasure trove of truth that you can easily be completed in thirty minutes or less, but which you'll want to read and re-read again for the importance of the gems contained therein. The knowledge garnered does not have to be strained for; for it's God's good pleasure to reveal the mysteries and principles of His kingdom to His kids. With the same clarity that Soaring above the Storm took us onto the spiritual battlefield of the mind and revealed both the enemy's strategies and God's overwhelming plan for victory, J. D. Fleck's most current work, In Pursuit of God takes the follower of Christ through the gates of the Kingdom to produce a vibrant picture of what it means to please God and to enter "the secret place of the Most High." In Pursuit of God might well be considered a prequel to Soaring, for it reflects the author's more than three decades of service to the Lord, and his insight into Kingdom principles. J. D. Fleck previously shared his knowledge of the supernatural realm and spiritual warfare; now his focus is on the unconditional love and amazing grace which God has bestowed upon His faithful.

Foundation addresses the very core of our integral being. It is the single most important thing in our lives. Our success or failure is determined by the type of foundation we have. No marriage succeeds without a solid foundation. No business lasts without a solid foundation. No country triumphs without a firm foundation. No ministry experiences a breakthrough without it. Foundation is connected to every aspect of our lives. I have seen a lot of families, businesses, Careers and ministries growing or breaking up as a result of the foundations they laid. Beloved, the purpose of this book is not just to reveal the effects of the wrong foundation we have laid but also to reveal the remedy for the broken foundation. If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do? (Psalm 11:3, KJV). This question remains the enigma that everybody needs to solve. As you read this book, ask yourself some sincere questions regarding the problems you've had and the one you are passing through right now. Are the foundations of your marriage, business, career, spiritual life, etc., in good order? If not, my prayer for you is that as you read this book, you might find joy, peace, victory, solution and fulfilment that only the power available in the name of Jesus Christ, our ultimate Foundation brings.

My purpose for writing this book is to share Biblical insights that correspond with Stewardship. I believe our people in the pews want to learn what God says about giving. Hopefully, this study will reach believers who need instruction on this topic. Scripture has much to say about money and material possessions. Sixteen of the thirty-eight parables of Jesus deal with money. One out of every ten verses in the New Testament deal with this subject. Scripture has 500 verses on prayer, less than 500 verses on faith, but over 2,000 verses on the subject of money. Money is an extremely important issue because a person's attitude towards it determines his relationship with God, his purpose in this life, and his character. I encourage you to read this book to see how God has put together a wonderful way for Christians to act as a conduit of His material and spiritual blessings. God's plan for Biblical Stewardship allows believers to faithfully share what the Lord places in their trust. About the Author: Dr. Donald Gamble is a graduate of Luther Rice Seminary. He has served churches in the two Carolinas and Florida. It is this writer's belief that when God's people are taught the principles of stewardship, they will be obedient in giving. Dr. Gamble resides in Waxhaw, North Carolina with his wife, Judy. They have three grown children and six beautiful grandchildren.

No instance has ever been found in the bible, where God changed His mind and subsequently His instruction given to Adam and by extension mankind, to rule over the earth.
