A stunning photo essay paired with 100 stories of members gives a rare glimpse into an intentional community that has stood the test of time. Yes, it is possible to create a society where there are no rich or poor, where children and elderly are welcome, where everyone has work and no one lives alone. Meet 100 individuals from diverse backgrounds who have ventured everything to build a life together where everyone belongs and everyone can contribute. A cross-section of the Bruderhof community's international and intergenerational membership, they have pooled their income, possessions, talents, and energy to take care of one another and to reach out to others. Defying five generations of naysayers, this is a community that works. As they reflect on 100 years of community, Bruderhof members reveal why they personally have chosen this radical way of life and share insights they have gleaned along the way. With photography by acclaimed British photojournalist Danny Burrows, this book is a celebration of what is possible when people take a leap of faith and dare a change. It's a window into a lived example that will inspire and encourage anyone working to build a more just, peaceful, and sustainable future.

A profoundly moving, heartrending story of a girl's struggle to love her mother in spite of her frightening mental illness After years of living in the shadow of her mother's mental illness, thirteen-year-old Jesse Bennett is given a fresh chance at happiness when her family moves to a village near the coast of Northern England. But just when it seems Jesse might be able to build a new life, her mother's worsening mental state and the secret Jesse fiercely guards about herself threaten to destroy the fragile stability she has found. Caught in the tempest of her mother's moods, her father's desperation, and the cruel social hierarchies ruling her school life, Jesse is forced to choose between doing what's right and preserving the normal life she's always hoped for. Neun Tage und ein Jahr Finishing Line Press

Nachdem sie ihre Eltern bei einem Autounfall verloren hat, schleicht sich die elfjährige Elise aus dem Waisenhaus und kehrt in das Haus ihrer Kindheit zurück. Nur wohnt da inzwischen eine andere Familie. Heimlich richtet sich das Mädchen in den stillen Winkeln der alten Südstaaten-Villa ein. Sie schläft auf dem Dachboden, stiehlt heimlich ihr Essen aus der Küche und sammelt kleine Schätze – Dinge, die einst ihrer Mutter und ihrem Vater gehörten. Zunächst ahnt nur der dreizehnjährige Eddie, dass sich jemand in ihrem Haus verstecken könnte. Doch als sein grimmiger älterer Bruder Marshall offenbart, dass auch er glaubt, dass etwas in den Wänden herumschleicht, beschließen sie gemeinsam, der Sache auf den Grund zu gehen. Um zu vertreiben, was ihre Familie vermeintlich heimsucht, rufen die beiden Brüder unwissentlich eine weitaus realere Bedrohung auf den Plan ... Girl in the Walls ist ein Roman über die Bewältigung von Trauer, über ungewöhnliche Freundschaften und die Erkenntnis, dass wir uns nicht immer vor dem fürchten sollten, was wir nicht verstehen. Eine Geschichte über den Unterschied zwischen einem Haus und einem Zuhause und darüber, was es bedeutet, seinen Platz in der Welt zu finden.

T.E. Lawrence found global recognition for his leadership of the Arab Revolt during World War I, preparing the ground for the final Allied offensive in 1918. He was hailed as a hero, but little is known about this mysterious and charismatic man after those events. Here is Lawrence's life after Arabia, his service in the RAF and the Tank Corps as a mere ranker, and how he became an expert in the technology of the new RAF. The book examines the work he did for the 1929 Schneider Trophy Race, the development of the new RAF 200 seaplane tender, and the development of its armour plated offspring, the Armoured Target Boat. It also investigates his literary endeavours and his tragically early death, a sad end to a Renaissance man of all talents, an academic, a talented engineer and a soldier sans pareil. T.E. was offered exalted diplomatic positions by Churchill, implored by Nancy Astor to re-enter the fray as the Nazi threat grew, socialised with the Cliveden set, argued with the Archbishop of Canterbury. He made lasting friendships with humble squaddies. His self-loathing was expressed physically. Consulting primary sources and also having interviewed some of those who knew Lawrence after Arabia the author portrays the last years of one of the most astonishing figures of the 20th century.

Girl in the Walls Bonnier Zaffre Ltd.

New York Times bestseller David Arnold returns with a poignant love story about two teens whose souls come together time and again through the ages—for fans of Nina LaCour and Matt Haig. Evan Taft has plans. Take a gap year in Alaska, make sure his little brother and single mother are taken care of, and continue therapy to process his father's departure. But after his mom's unexpected diagnosis, as Evan's plans begin to fade, he hears something: a song no one else can hear, the voice of a mysterious singer . . . Shosh Bell has dreams. A high school theater legend, she's headed to performing arts college in LA, a star on the rise. But when a drunk driver takes her sister's life, that star fades to black. All that remains is a void—and a soft voice singing in her ear . . . Over it all, transcending time and space, a celestial bird brings strangers together: from an escaped murderer in 19th century Paris, to a Norwegian kosmonaut in low-earth orbit, something is happening that began long ago, and will long outlast Evan and Shosh. With lyrical prose and original songs (written and recorded by the author), I LOVED YOU IN ANOTHER LIFE explores the history of love, and how some souls are meant for each other—yesterday, today, forever.

"There Is Another Life!" is a compelling and revealing journey of a mother's encounter with signs and wonders beyond the scope of imagination. It answers the hard questions we ask, after the loss of a child and or love ones. It will give hope to the hopeless and strength to those without strength. It is a true in depth experience of a woman after being plunged into a place of grief, sorrow and devastating despair, only to rise to a place of hope, understanding and reconciliation knowing the truth concerning life after death, both spiritual death and physical death, after tragic murder of her only son. Engulfed in darkness, shattered in pieces my heart slivered I was propelled into a dark and dreary grave, but through this miraculous journey from victim to victor to victory. I've seen a glimpse into another life changed my life forever. "Grief no longer holds me captive."

Introducing a heart-wrenching tale of death, betrayal and love in all of its glorious aspects, Another Life, Another Love follows a young woman called Suzanne who struggles to come to terms with all that life throws at her. Written in an intimate manner to bring the reader closer into her world, the books is a well-written drama of life - it's complexities, its problems, and its tragedies. Against such a volatile background, Suzanne struggles with a myriad of conflicting, sometimes bitter, feelings which leave her unable to deal with even the most essential everyday things. Her only reason to continue on is her young son, Joshua, her world. Him, and a long-time family friend, Walter, who is always there, remorselessly driving her on to face life, the good and the bad. He chivvies, he goads, he encourages and...loves her? But does Suzanne want another love with Walter or should she go to France for another life? With the addition of beautifully written poetry at the beginning of the novel, Another Life, Another Love is a story all readers can relate to and find cathartic in their own troubled times.

The three previous issues of The Ministry contained a series of messages entitled "Vision in God's Economy," comprising Brother Lee's fellowship with the elders and co-workers in Taipei in March 1986. Following this enlightening and crucial word concerning the vision that matches the age, Brother Lee began to speak concerning the present practice in the Lord's recovery. His speaking, which we include in this issue, was a continuation of his desperate fight, begun in October 1984, to overturn the old traditions among the churches and bring in a new way, the God-ordained way, to meet and to serve. In this message, our brother emphasizes the practice of the new way: to preach the gospel, build up the small groups, and teach the truth, while not forsaking the larger church meetings on the Lord's Day morning. Six other messages in this issue are taken from the Thanksgiving Conference in November 1997. The general subject of this conference was "The Sevenfold Intensified Heavenly Ministry of Christ." Christ's work in the stage of His intensification is to intensify His organic salvation, to produce the overcomers to build up the Body of Christ, and to consummate the New Jerusalem. We must advance from a work in the stages of incarnation and inclusion to the work in the stage of intensification. The Lord's speaking in this conference through His ministry was instant and intensified, showing us the way to become lovers of Christ, martyrs for Christ, and eaters of Christ for the ultimate consummation of God's eternal economy, the New Jerusalem. The Lord is advancing in His move to propagate Himself in Eastern and Western Europe. In this issue we include a report on the Lord's move there, providing some details of the work to distribute our publications, the Full-time Training in London, an international meeting of brothers, and upcoming international blending conferences in five European countries.

Many writers started their professional lives in very diverse fields before embracing writing, or on the contrary have turned away from writing. The present volume seeks to explore the complex relationship between that 'other life' and writing. The aim is to determine whether a writer's 'other life' appears in, influences or even shapes his/her work, and to what extent. What is the part of gestation and that of rupture? A diversity of writers is examined: Patrick Chamoiseau, J. M. Coetzee, Jan J. Dominique, Janet Frame, Amitav Ghosh, L. K. Johnson, Wilson Harris, Dany Laferrière, Yannick Lahens, NourbeSe Philip, Emmelie Prophète, Arundhati Roy, Edward Said, but also Bartolomé de las Casas and E. L. Grant Watson. Unpublished autobiographical essays and a poem are included, especially written for the volume by Marie-Célie Agnant, Cyril Dabydeen and Fred D'Aguiar.

In this blistering conclusion to the nationally bestselling series, Burke is forced into a journey that will change the lives of the urban survivalist and his outlaw family forever. The only person Burke has ever called father, known throughout the underground as "The Prof," is in a coma, barely clinging to life in an off the-books hospital. So when Pryce, a slippery man with government connections, offers the best medical services for the Prof and a clean slate for all concerned, Burke takes the contract without reading it. The two-year-old son of a Saudi prince has been kidnapped. A highly professional snatch; no mistakes, no clues, and no ransom note. Burke's job: get the kid back, whatever it takes. To do so, the ultimate man-for-hire must return to the day "Baby Boy Burke" was written on his birth certificate, and write, in the blood of his enemies, the final act of this story.
