The potential problem as presented in this case study appears to be focused primarily on Isabella's anxiety problems. Case conceptualization, Intervention and Evaluation Solution-focused therapy is a type of treatment that highlights a client's ability to solve problems, rather than why or how the problem was created. It was developed over some time after observations of therapists in a mental health facility in Wisconsin by Steve de Shazer and Insoo Kim Berg and their colleagues. 7 Best Solution-Focused Therapy Techniques and Worksheets ... In solution-focused therapy, the therapy does not emphasize the problem at all; it stresses and highlights the solution. Solution-focused therapy also considers the client the expert and not the therapist. The client is the expert because no one knows their own lives better than themselves. Solution Focused Therapy - IJSE Solution-Focused Brief Therapy is different in many ways from traditional approaches to treatment. It is a competency-based and resource-based model, which minimizes emphasis on past failings and problems, and instead focuses on clients' strengths, and previous and future successes. Solution Focused Therapy Solution focused therapists traditionally take a brief consultation break during the 2nd half of each therapy session during which the therapist reflects carefully on what has occurred in the session. Some time prior to the break, the client is asked "Is there anything that I did not ask that you think it would be important for me to know?" What is Solution-Focused Therapy?
