Modern
feminist
literature
owes its origin
partly to this

innocent looking romance.
However, its main
character,
Sara Videbeck, is a
pioneer of women's liberation at a time when
women essentially

had no rights.
Owning
property and a
business
without a
husband were unthinkable at the time, yet
she found a way. Wanting
no meddling
in her affairs
by a man, she kept the man

she loved close in love but distant in business. Here is the dreamy romance that rocked Europe's foundations in 1838. Det går an Legare Street Press Climate change vulnerability assessment is a rapidly developing field. However, despite the fact that such major trends as globalization and the changing characteristics of the political and economic governance systems are crucial in shaping a community's capacity to adapt to climate change, these trends are seldom included in assessments. This book addresses this shortcoming by developing a framework for qualitative vulnerability assessment in multiple impact studies (of climate change and globalization) and applying this framework to several cases of renewable natural resource use.

The book draws upon case studies of forestry and fishing - two of the largest sectors that rely on renewable natural resources - and reindeer herding in the European North. The study represents a bottom-up view, originating with the stakeholders themselves, of the degree to which stakeholders find adaptation to climate change possible and how they evaluate it in relation to their other concerns, notably economic and political ones. Moreover, the approach and research results include features that could be broadly generalized to other geographic areas or sectors characterized by renewable natural resource use.

Under en ångbåtsresa mellan Stockholm och Lidköping förälskar sig glasmästardottern Sara och sergeanten Albert i varandra. Sara vill inte gifta sig, men önskar att de ska leva med varandra ändå. Det går an [1839] av Carl Jonas Love Almqvist är en av svensk litteraturs mest omdiskuterade kärleksromaner. Boken väckte stor, långvarig debatt på sin tid, på grund av dess ställningstagande mot äktenskapet och mot det skråväsende som gjorde kvinnan ekonomiskt livegen. Romanen befäste Almqvists rykte som o- eller amoralisk folkförförare och socialt stod den honom dyrt. I dag hör romanen till våra allra största klassiker. CARL JONAS LOVE ALMQVIST [1793-1866] är en av svensk litteraturs mest originella författare. Romantiker, realist, tidig feminist och radikal inte minst som aktivt verkande för allmän rösträtt. Hans mest kända verk är den historiska romanfantasin om mordet på Gustav III, Drottningens juvelsmycke [1834], och den samhällsomstörtande kärleksromanen Det går an [1839], i vars kölvatten det uppstod en hel »Det går an«-litteratur och som omintetgjorde Almqvists civila karriär i Sverige.

Nordiskt medicinskt arkiv Jiahu Books Nordic Literature: A comparative history is a multi-volume comparative analysis of the literature of the Nordic region. Bringing together the literature of Finland, continental Scandinavia (Sweden, Norway, Denmark, and Sápmi), and the insular region (Iceland, Greenland, and the Faroe Islands), each volume of this three-volume project adopts a new frame through which one can recognize and analyze significant clusters of literary practice. This first volume, Spatial nodes, devotes its attention to the changing literary figurations of space by Nordic writers from medieval to contemporary times. Organized around the depiction of various “scapes” and spatial practices at home and abroad, this approach to Nordic literature stretches existing notions of temporally linear, nationally centered literary history and allows questions of internal regional similarities and differences to emerge more strongly. The productive historical contingency of the “North” as a literary space becomes clear in this close analysis of its literary texts and practices. Det Går An. Fortsättning [Of the Novel by C.J.L. går an är en kortroman av Carl Jonas Love Almqvist. Den skrevs 1838, publicerades till julen 1839, men kom senare även att, i omarbetat skick, ingå i band III av den så kallade imperialoktav upplagan av Törnrosens bok, vilket utkom 1850. Almqvist gav ut "Det går an" i flera olika upplagor med stora ändringar, vilket gör boken extra intressant ur ett filologiskt perspektiv. During a steamboat trip between Stockholm and Lidköping, a sergeant named Albert falls in love with the glazier's daughter Sara Videbeck. But Sara insists that they live in an egalitarian marriage without a formal marriage ceremony and without shared property (today known as living apart together). Sara asks at the end of the book: Går allt detta an, Albert? (Is all this acceptable, Albert?) The answer is: Det går an (It is acceptable). The novel is primarily an attack on lifelong marriage as an institution and the inability of women to become financially independent. The book's social tendency aroused lively debate and "det-går-an literature" became a concept. One consequence however was that Almqvist was forced out of his post as rector at the

New Elementary School, Stockholm. (Wikipedia.org) Fróðskaparrit 55 Createspace Independent Publishing Platform Have you ever wondered why Nordic countries are so prosperous, peaceful, good for business, and happy? They have a secret and it was invented in Denmark: folk-bildung. Bildung is a German concept that combines moral and emotional development	with education. Still, it was a Danish pastor and a teacher who democratized it and invented folk high schools and laid the foundation for some of the most prosperous countries in the world. Bildung; Keep Growing tells the story of this Danish invention and suggests a path towards global folk- bildung and a wiser, more meaningful, happier future. Henrik Ibsens Dramen	Bookboon In 850 analytical articles, this two-volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensitivity during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century. The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear, detailed, and accurate reference source on the literature, thought, music, and art of the period, demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross-currents at work; and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism.

Routledge Mette er alene i Oslo når landet stenges ned i mars 2020. Inspirert av Isaac Newton, legger hun ut på en oppdagelsesreise i lys. Spekteret som åpner seg, involverer alle relasjoner. Også arbeidsdagen. Leseren tas med inn i en sanselig og nær verden hvor vitenskapsmenn, komponister, forfattere, filosofer og helgener er like naturlige hverdagsvenner som småfuglene, hageplantene, telefonen og katten uten navn. Komposisjoner av lys er bygget opp av fragmenter: biter av minner, fliker av samtaler, glimt av situasjoner, stemninger, sitater og refleksjoner. Den lodder dypt, men er lett å lese. Den er full av alvor, men også av morsomheter og absurditeter. Først og fremst er den menneskelig, og tilbyr et fellesskap der vi er på vårt mest ensomme. «Hun tar sats i hverdagsbetra ktninger og sikter mot lengre tankerekker. Lett springer hun fra konkrete dagligdagse hendelser, taktile sansninger og observasjoner til eksistensiell tematikk. Sjarmerende tar hun leseren fra bare føtter og kattepels under fingrene, til Bibelen.»Astri d Fosvold, Vårt	land«Elisabeth Thorsens første roman om presten Mettes liv og indre reise griper meg fra første stund.
