The Most Beautiful Songs for Easy Classical Piano

Hal Leonard Corporation
Reprint of the original, first published in 1873.
The Book of World-famous Music Glissato Edizioni Musicali
This book discusses WWI-era music in a historical context, explaining music's importance at home and abroad during WWI as well as examining what music was being sung, played, and danced to during the years prior to America's involvement in the Great War. Why was music so important to soldiers abroad during World War I? What role did music—ranging from classical to theater music, rags, and early jazz—play on the American homefront? Music of the First World War explores the tremendous importance of music during the years of the Great War—when communication technologies were extremely limited and music often took the place of connecting directly with loved ones or reminiscing via recorded images. The book's chapters cover music's contribution to the war effort; the variety of war-related songs, popular hits, and top recording artists of the war years; the music of Broadway shows and other theater productions; and important composers and lyricists. The author also explores the development of the fledgling recording industry at this time. Some Sunday Morning A-R Editions, Inc.

This volume makes available the full range of the American/Canadian musical experience, covering—for the first time in print—all major regions, ethnic groups, and traditional and popular contexts. From musical comedy to world beat, from the songs of the Arctic to rap and house music, from Hispanic Texas to the Chinese communities of Vancouver, the coverage captures the rich diversity and continuities of the vibrant music we hear around us. Special attention is paid to recent immigrant groups, to Native American traditions, and to such socio-musical topics as class, race, gender, religion, government policy, media, and technology.

"Morning Mood" from "Peer Gynt" Suite I, Op. 46 by Edvard Grieg, Arranged for Woodwind Quartet (Easy-Intermediate Level) by Francesco Leone. Embark on a musical journey with the tranquil and evocative tones of Edvard Grieg's "Morning Mood" from his famous "Peer Gynt" Suite I, Op. 46, now beautifully arranged for woodwind quartet by Francesco Leone. This arrangement, tailored for musicians at an easy to intermediate skill level, offers a splendid opportunity to delve into the world of classical music through a woodwind ensemble. This eBook features the full score for a diverse quartet composition: Flute, Oboe, Bb Clarinet, and Bassoon. Each part is intricately arranged, ensuring that every instrument contributes to the overall harmony and texture of the piece, while also allowing individual musicians to shine. Leone's arrangement preserves the essence of Grieg's masterpiece, capturing its serene and pastoral mood. The interplay of the distinct timbres of the flute, oboe, clarinet, and bassoon adds a unique depth and richness to this beloved classic, making it a joy to both play and listen to. To support a global audience of musicians and educators, the eBook also includes informative sheets in multiple languages: English, French, German, Spanish, Portuguese, and Italian. These sheets offer valuable insights into the piece, its arrangement, and historical context, making it a perfect resource for educational settings and performance preparation. Please note: This eBook includes the full score. The individual parts for each instrument in the quartet are available separately in series. These parts are essential for performers to fully engage with the intricacies and beauty of this arrangement. Whether for educational purposes, ensemble practice, or simply for the joy of playing, this woodwind quartet arrangement of "Morning Mood" is an excellent addition to any musician's repertoire, bringing a piece of the Romantic era's musical heritage to life."

These short songs all on the black keys are SO EASY TO READ! Perfect for your little beginners and even older beginners, who will strengthen their fingers along with their counting abilities as they focus on just finger placement, and rhythm. Keyboard graphics help them decide where to place their hands. Very soon, they will be reading these little songs without any assistance from you! Very young beginners and special-needs students, too, will benefit from the relaxed pace possible with the songs in "Just the Black Keys." Lyrics in most of the songs help with the counting. Some of the songs are old-fashioned poems, such as Lewis Carroll's "Jabberwocky", and many are original lyrics written just for that song. Some of the music is traditional ("Old MacDonald," "Go Tell It On the Mountain,") and some is classical (Grieg's "Morning Song" from Peer Gynt). And some of the pieces are lovely, with harmony, even without the teacher accompaniment ("Morning Sun Upon the Mountain" and "One Star in the Darkness"). What's NEW about this book that you won't find at the website? Teacher accompaniments are on the facing pages! Some of the accompaniments are very beautiful, some of them are ominous-sounding, and some are bouncy and cheerful! Together, the student parts and the teacher parts make great recital duets. You can go to HTTPS://WWW.MUSIC-FOR-MUSIC-TEACHERS.COM/JUST-THE-BLACK-KEYS.HTML to see many of these songs for yourself. Many of the most popular method books start children on the black keys. That's excellent for hand posture and for learning basic music principles... but for some students, they need more reinforcement and time before moving on to the treble and bass staff notes. The feeling of success that comes with learning a new piano song quickly, with little teacher input, helps build confidence in young students. Lots of songs to choose from; your students will ask for a new one - or two - each week!

The Monthly Musical Record Courier Corporation What did popular song mean to people across the world during the First World War? For the first time, song repertoires and musical industries from countries on both sides in the Great War as well as from neutral countries are analysed in one exciting volume. Experts from around the world, and with very different approaches, bring to life the entertainment of a century ago, to show the role it played in the lives of our ancestors. The reader will meet the penniless lyricist, the theatre chain owner, the cross-dressing singer, fado composer, stage Scotsman or rhyming soldier, whether they come from Serbia, Britain, the USA, Germany, France, Portugal or elsewhere, in this fascinating exploration of showbiz before the generalization of the gramophone. Singing was a vector for patriotic support for the war, and sometimes for anti-war activism, but it was much more than that, and expressed and constructed debates, anxieties, social identities and changes in gender roles. This work, accompanied by many links to online recordings, will allow the reader to glimpse the complex role of popular song in people's lives in a period of total war.

This series of selected scores are from our beloved classical concert program «Singing Strings» YANG Jing Music for Pipa with String Quartet. Stringed instruments form the backbone of the western classical symphony orchestra. The Eastern string instrument Pipa has developed into a leading solo instrument as early as the Tang dynasty (618 - 709) in the East. In this set of classical concert programs, all pieces maintain the original and natural acoustic sound source of unplugged string instruments. It enables the encounter of different acoustic properties, different expressions of sound and sound aesthetics that have developed over time in different regions. This Program let old & new string instruments offer us an unforgettable musical experience _ from the fresh energy of the morning to the poetry of the sunset - from a silk bamboo tea house to a passionate dance in the desert of the wild west - from the search for one's own identity to the singing of swinging hearts - from pearls falling on to a jade plate to the gallop of black horses... Each piece opens up a new perspective!

"Morning Mood" from "Peer Gynt" Suite I, Op. 46 by Edvard Grieg, Transcription for Woodwind Quintet (Early Intermediate Level) by Francesco Leone Experience the enchanting beauty of Edvard Grieg's "Morning Mood" from the iconic "Peer Gynt" Suite I, Op. 46, brought to life in a delightful transcription for woodwind quintet by the talented Francesco Leone. This arrangement is designed for musicians at an easy to intermediate level, providing an accessible yet fulfilling challenge. Included in this eBook are both the full score and individual parts for eight instruments: Flute, Oboe, Bb Clarinet, French Horn in F, and Bassoon. To ensure versatility and accommodate different ensemble configurations, Leone has thoughtfully provided optional parts for Eb Horn, Bass Clarinet (as an alternative to the Bassoon), and Bb Clarinet (to replace the Oboe). Included informative sheets in: English, French, German, Spanish, Portuguese, Italian. Leone's transcription captures the serene and pastoral essence of the original composition, while expertly adapting it for a woodwind quintet. This makes it an excellent choice for both educational purposes and performance, offering a rich opportunity to explore one of Grieg's most beloved melodies.
