In all world religions, gratitude is considered as an essential part of the act of worship and always viewed as a better way of life. This new book is an attempt to demonstrate the power of gratitude and how it can transform someone's life. Giving thanks in everything makes people happier, strengthens relationships, improves well-being and health, reduces stress and comply with God's will in Jesus-Christ. Counting blessings, noticing simple pleasures, and acknowledging everything that we receive every day as a gift from God is a power that changes Lives. Giving thanks can change someone's life from worst to better. Gratitude helps to see every thing in God's perspective. Learning how to say "THANK YOU" in all circumstances constitutes the most effective way to put into action the transformative power of the daily gratitude.

In these talks, given in Ojai and India, Krishnamurti discusses the nature of the observer. He states in the beginning, "to understand the confusion and misery that exist in ourselves, and to in the world, we must first find clarity within ourselves and this clarity comes about through right thinking ... Right thinking comes with self knowledge. Without understanding yourself, you have no basis for thought; without self-knowledge what you think is not true."

This collection of essays, published in honour of Professor Georgia Xanthakis-Karamanos, addresses topics which lie at the forefront of current research on the fields of Greek drama and classical reception studies. It brings together internationally distinguished scholars who provide fresh insights into issues pertaining to the origins of Greek tragedy and comedy, their generic identity, the structure, the morality or the divine and human characters emerging from individual plays, the presence of Greek drama outside Athens in post-classical times, the associations between drama and genres such as epic and oratory or even the reception of Greek drama in operatic works such as Wagner's Tristan und Isolde. Related art forms, such as music, receive particular attention. Focusing on either broader topics or specific texts, the essays of this volume provide a wide range of theoretical perspectives often combining modern critical trends such as reception studies, narratology or cultural studies with close and acute readings of individual passages. The volume is of particular interest to scholars and students of Greek drama and its reception as well as to anyone interested in Greek culture and its various manifestations.

rose from poverty in the foothills of the Andes to become the first Latin American to win the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1945. This volume provides both a detailed biography of the author and a careful analysis of her writing. Chronicling the personal, psychological, and social currents of Mistral's life and times, it addresses such topics as her finances, illness, and sexuality. Literary analysis considers the sacred and secular influences on Mistral's oeuvre, including Catholicism, the Hebraic tradition, Theosophy, and Buddhism. By recounting Mistral's intelligence and perseverance in overcoming her life's obstacles to reach the pinnacle of her field, this book establishes her as a model for Chileans and for humanity. Este libro es el resultado de haber buscado e indagado en los libros sagrados de las religiones y filosofías más populares, los puntos comunes y más importantes que unen a todas ellas. Tratando de ordenar y explicar estos puntos o ideas principales de una manera práctica y lógica, y depurándolas del dogma particular de cada escuela. Usando un vocabulario sencillo y sin la necesidad de tener experiencia previa en ningún tipo de lectura, hace que esta sea ligera pero profunda a la vez, llevándonos a la introspección personal y meditación; que es el objetivo principal del libro. El camino a casa Univ of California Press unknown author, the Bhagavad Gita is one of the Upanishads, or sacred texts, of Hinduism. In it, the warrior Arjuna formulates questions to be answered by Krishna, the reincarnation of the god Vishnu, and in the process paves the way for such diverse traditions as Vedic philosophy, yoga, vedanta, and tantra. These memories, handwritten by Elmo Cermaria (Nonno Peppe) for his grandson Checco (Francesco Nicolini), tell of when, as a young man of 20, he found himself hurled into the inferno of the First World War. In those days, you could cry your heart out for a bread roll denied, then miraculously regained thanks to the compassion of a German soldier, “the hated enemy”. These recollections are terse, without a trace of rhetoric and devoid of recriminations.

Nonno Peppe tells the facts just as he experienced them first hand, without expressing any condemnation of those responsible for them, even though an awareness of the large-scale massacre he witnessed transpires from his account. When Nonno Peppe delivered the manuscript to his grandson on his wedding day, he asked him to make a promise: “Let the President of the Republic know what we did for Italy.” A hundred years ago, whole generations of young Italian men were stripped of human honor and dignity. Only a few of these young men would live on and become our grandfathers; and only a few of us would be fortunate enough to become “grandchildren of the Great War” and bear witness to their ordeal.

norteamericano Federico Sulimovich 5200 Años más tarde Shreemad Bhagwad Geeta en su exposición auténtica y eterna La Geeta En Su Verdadera Perspectiva La ciencia de la religión para la humanidad Cuáles eran los sentimientos y las emociones que sentía Shri Krishan cuando predicó la Geeta? No se puede expresar en palabras todos los sentimientos íntimos. Unos se expresan unos por palabras, algunos sentimientos se comunican por gestos y el resto de los sentimientos tienen que ser comprendidos por el buscador a través de sus experiencias. Un maestro sabio comprende lo que dice la Geeta, sólo después de alcanzar el mismo estado espiritual que Shri Krishan. Es entonces que él consigue comunicar el sentimiento más profundo de la Geeta, en vez de hacer una mera reiteración de sus versos. Esto se hace posible porque él consigue ver la misma escena que veía Shri Krishan cuando predicaba la Geeta. De esta manera, él comprende el sentido verdadero y nos lo comunica, despertando en nosotros los sentimientos íntimos que llevan al camino del esclarecimiento. El Reverendísimo Shri Paramhansji Maharaj también fue un maestro ilustré de un nivel muy elevado y la recopilación de sus sermones y sus bendiciones para comprender el sentimiento mas profundo de la Geeta, es "Yatharth Geeta". - Swami Adgadanand

Con esta autobiografía extraordinaria, Radhanath Swami narra una historia llena de aventura, misticismo y amor. El lector sigue a Richard Slavin desde los suburbios de Chicago hasta las cuevas del Himalaya mientras se transforma de un joven buscador a un famoso guía espiritual. El Camino a Casa es un relato íntimo de los pasos hacia la autoconciencia y también un vistazo penetrante al corazón de las tradiciones místicas. A la misma vez, el autor también presenta los desafíos que todas las almas deben enfrentar en el camino hacia la armonía interior y una unión con lo Divino. A través de encuentros con la mortalidad, las lecciones y sabiduría de yoguis avanzados y años de viaje por el camino del peregrino, Radhanath Swami finalmente llega al santuario interior de la cultura mística de la India y finalmente encuentra el amor que ha estado buscando. Una historia contada con rara sinceridad, El Camino a Casa sumerge al lector en un viaje a la vez interesante, divertido y conmovedor.

El presente trabajo, es un tema que se ubica, dentro de uno mayor llamado Inteligencias múltiples. Mi propuesta es desarrollar siete inteligencias prioritarias, acordes con el ideal constitucional (...desarrollar armonicamente, todas las facultades del ser humano. Art. 3). Al desarrollar estas siete capacidades (meta-normas), desarrollaríamos una cultura jurídica tal, que estimularía una conducta acorde con la legalidad y esto evitaría un sinnúmero de acciones, fuera del orden."

This primer on biblical criticism and key problems in religion and philosophy is intended as an introduction to these complex subjects for Spanish-speaking laypersons with little or no prior scientific training in the area. Professor Avalos critically reviews the classic arguments for the existence of God, alleged miracles and faith-healing, the belief that the Bible is the inerrant word of God, problems of good and evil in the Bible, creation stories, biblical prophecy, the resurrection of Jesus, and many other topics. In the last part of the book, Avalos discusses the scientific worldview, especially as it impinges upon the question of the existence of God. A notes section allows readers to explore more deeply the areas touched on in the text; appendices provide information on the sources of many biblical stories and beliefs in Mesopotamian and other ancient Near Eastern cultures; and a final personal note briefly recounts the author's experiences from his upbringing in fundamentalist Christianity to his current skeptical view. This informative volume is an excellent starting point for those who wish to explore with a minimum of resources basic questions in religion, philosophy, and biblical studies. Hector Avalos (Ames, IA) is associate professor of Religious Studies at Iowa State University, the author of four books on biblical studies and religion, the former editor of the Journal for the Critical Study of Religion, and executive director of the Committee for the Scientific Examination of Religion.

The Church recalls that "in religious traditions of non-Christians there exist

"elements which are true and good" (OT 16), "precious things, both religious and human" (GS 92), "seeds of contemplation" (AG 18), "elements of truth and grace" (AG 9), "seeds of the word" (AG 11, 15), and "rays of that Truth which enlightens all human beings" (NA 2)" (Dialogue and Mission 26). Consequently, the Encyclical of Pope John Paul II Redemptoris Missio and the Statement Dialogue and Proclamation of the Pontifical Council for Inter-Religious Dialogue and Congregation for the evangelisation of Peoples have opened wide avenues for interreligious dialogue all over the world. The present study makes use of the comparative method incorporating historical, exegetical and critical analysis of the important texts and words of the Bhagavadgita and St. John of the Cross. In these two traditions the dynamism of spiritual growth in the process of God-Realisation is compared and contrasted through an exhaustive study on "God", "Man" and the "Ways". Both the traditions point to a progressive dynamism of spiritual growth towards God-experience, through purification, knowledge and union of love, in spite of the differences. The author suggests concrete points for an integration of the two traditions in view of an intense dialogue of theological exchange and dialogue of religious experience (Dialogue and Proclamation 42).
