Anne Frank Diary of a Young Girl Morgan James Publishing

Anne Franks Tagebuch, weltbekannt und geliebt, liegt jetzt in einer völlig neuen Fassung vor: »Das Tagebuch der Anne Frank: Graphic Diary. Umgesetzt von Ari Folman und David Polonsky« ist eine einzigartige Kombination aus dem Originaltext und lebendigen, fiktiven Dialogen, eindrücklich und einfühlsam illustriert von Ari Folman und David Polonsky. Beide bekannt für ihr Meisterwerk »Waltz with Bashir«, das u.a. für den Oscar nominiert war. So lebendig Anne Frank über das Leben im Hinterhaus, die Angst entdeckt zu werden, aber auch über ihre Gefühle als Heranwachsende schreibt, so unmittelbar, fast filmisch sind die Illustrationen. Das publizistische Ereignis zum 70. Jahrestag der Erstveröffentlichung, autorisiert vom Anne Frank Fonds Basel. Ari Folman ist Filmregisseur, Drehbuchautor und Filmproduzent. Er wurde 1962 als Sohn polnischer Holocaust-Überlebender in Haifa geboren. Als junger israelischer Soldat erlebte er 1982 den Ersten Libanonkrieg mit. Über die teils autobiografischen traumatischen Erlebnisse drehte er 2008 den animierten Dokumentarfilm Waltz with Bashir, der als bester fremdsprachiger Film für den Oscar nominiert wurde, den Europäischen Filmpreis und den César erhielt. David Polonsky, geboren 1973 in Kiew, ist ein preisgekrönter Illustrator und Comiczeichner. Weltbekannt wurde er durch seine Zeichnungen für den Animationsfilm »Waltz with Bashir« und die gleichnamige Graphic Novel. Er unterrichtet an Israels angesehenester Kunstakademie Bezalel in Jerusalem.

Anne Frank was a Jewish teenage victim of the Holocaust and was made famous posthumously when her diary collections were published after her death at a Nazi concentration camp. Her frank, idealistic yet mature analyses of her reality hiding from Nazi persecution has endeared her to many children, teenagers and adults around the world. Created for children aged 10 and up, this movie based historical unit study is an excellent introduction to World War II and how the Frank family stood out as heroes during the Holocaust. Movies are an excellent introduction to history which is often depicted in a very dry and dull way through textbooks. This journal acts as a bridge between the movie and factual history, helping to answer the student's questions often brought up during and after the movie. This journal has been designed to provide a scaffolding for the student to conduct independent inquiry and research into Anne Frank and the Holocaust event, using the internet or reference books available at the library. The student will engage himself in finding out answers to his Whys, Whats, Hows, Whos, Wheres and Whens. Apart from historical study, the child can do movie study, book/movie comparison, character analyses, geographical study, as well ethical social issues of that era (and much more!). Many notes and vocabulary pages have been inserted into the journal for the student to record his learning and use them to complete more than 20 research prompts and multimodal activities. The student can complete a few pages a week or use it every day on alternate weeks. The suggested FREE videos for viewing are given in the journal (alternatives are provided for older or younger viewers). If you wish to see some sample pages or purchase the PDF, they are available at www.learningandjournaling.com.

Penguin Readers Level 2: The Extraordinary Life of Anne Frank (ELT Graded Reader) S. Fischer Verlag

How do children's books represent the Holocaust? How do such books negotiate the tension between the desire to protect children, and the commitment to tell children the truth about the world? If Holocaust representations in children's books respect the narrative conventions of hope and happy endings, how do they differ, if at all, from popular representations intended for adult audiences? And where does innocence lie, if the children's fable of Roberto Benigni's Life is Beautiful is marketed for adults, and far more troubling survivor memoirs such as Anita Lobel's No Pretty Pictures: A Child of War are marketed for children? How should Holocaust Studies integrate discourse about children's literature into its discussions? In approaching these and other questions, Kertzer uses the lens of children's literature to problematize the ways in which various adult discourses represent the Holocaust, and continually challenges the conventional belief that children's literature is the place for easy answers and optimistic lessons.

(Originally Published in 2000 by Allyn & Bacon) Teaching and Studying the Holocaust is comprised of thirteen chapters by some of the most noted Holocaust educators in the United States. In addition to chapters on establishing clear rationales for teaching this history and Holocaust historiography, the book includes individual chapters on incorporating primary documents, first person accounts, film, literature, art, drama, music, and technology into a study of the Holocaust. It concludes with an extensive and valuable annotated bibliography especially designed for educators. Chapter Ten instructs how to make effective use of technology in teaching and learning about the Holocaust. The final section of the book includes a bibliography especially developed for teachers that lists invaluable resources. From the Back Cover: Holocaust scholars from around the world offer critical acclaim for Totten and Feinberg's Teaching and Studying the Holocaust: Michael Berenbaum; Ida E. King Distinguished Visitor Professor of Holocaust Studies, Richard Stockton College and Former Director of Research at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum: "There are many scholars who are wont to criticize the teaching of the Holocaust. Many journalists critique what they regard as kitsch or trendiness. All critics of contemporary Holocaust education would do well to read this book. One cannot fail to be impressed by the quality of its learning and the seriousness of its purpose. It is a wonderful place for teachers to turn as they contemplate teaching the Holocaust, an open invitation to learn more and teach more effectively." Barry van Driel; Coordinator International Teacher Education, Anne Frank House, Amsterdam: "Teaching and Studying the Holocaust is an invaluable resource for any teacher wanting to address the complex and sometimes overwhelming history of the Holocaust in the classroom. The book offers a multitude of sensitive and responsible ways of dealing with the issue of the Holocaust. It succeeds in showing teachers very clearly how the study of the Holocaust is not just a topic for history teachers, but for teachers across the curriculum." Dr. Nili Keren; Kibbutzim College of Education, Tel Aviv, Israel "Teaching about the Shoah is one of the most complicated tasks for educators. Indeed, teaching and studying this history raises unprecedented questions concerning modern civilization, and presents teachers and students with tremendous challenges. Samuel Totten and Stephen Feinberg have created a volume that provides educators with essential information and new insights regarding the teaching of this history, and, in doing so, they assist educators to face the aforementioned challenges head-on. Teaching and Studying the Holocaust does not make the task easier, but it does make it possible." Samuel Totten is currently professor of Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. Prior to entering academia, he was an English and social studies teacher in Australia, Israel, California, and at the U.S. House of Representatives Page School in Washington, D.C. Totten is also editor of Teaching Holocaust Literature published by Allyn & Bacon. Stephen Feinberg is currently the Special Assistant for Education Programs in the National Institute for Holocaust Education at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. With Samuel Totten, he was co-editor of a special issue (Teaching the Holocaust) of Social Education, the official journal of the National Council for the Social Studies. For eighteen years, he was a history and social studies teacher in the public schools of Wayland, MA.
