MTV had just aired a show called Sorority Life, which followed the six-week pledge process of a California sorority (a "local" sorority, which meant it was independent and unaffiliated with any national organization). The show had infuriated sororities nationwide, who believed that MTV had overly sensationalized life in a sorority house and concentrated only on the girls' drinking and catty fights. Pledged: The Secret Life of Sororities Excerpt Pledged: the Secret Life of Sororities. Sororities, by their very design as secret institutions, drive speculation and gossip about what happens behind their closed doors.
