He can write as you say within 4 hours in a day. And he can direct Hollywood movies without a script, it's my confidence. If you provide an opportunity to write a Hollywood story with any theme he can write it in front of you spontaneously without giving time for thinking. Lonely without anybody's help. He can write that Hollywood script within fraction of second's right from foundation

Himagiri is not limited to humans; or not dedicated. Himagiri it states that every country in the world should follow the Himagiri constitution. The Constitution is not just for Himagiri country. At present, in some countries, many religious practices and religion are being threatened by the constitution already in place. Noticing this, Param Prabhu Allahu Jehovah created the constitution that he himself had created in the universe to be implemented in all countries in the world. He created it in the presence of all the deities of the universe. In that constitution, no country, no one is threatened. There is no difference. Everyone gets equality and freedom there. But the written constitution is not only applicable to human beings but also to other living beings.

Dr CR Chandrashekar: "People's psychiatrist" Dr. CRC, as he is popularly known, has written more than 200 books and 1000 articles on physical and mental health for lay people. Many of his books are best sellers and have been reprinted more than ten times. He has been educating people on mental health through lectures, workshops, and radio and TV talks to remove the stigma associated with mental illness and to ensure that patients get proper treatment. He does around 100 such events in a year, and he has been tirelessly doing this for more than 40 years. Chandrashekar was born into a backward caste family. They were not well to do; no one had an education beyond high school and they lacked ambition. He used to get epileptic attacks when he was in school, and his parents knew no better than to take him to faith healers. When he passed SSLC, he had no plans to continue his education; instead, he joined his father's printing press. He was content to work in the press, but at the urging of his teacher, who said he should become a doctor, he joined Pre-university course and later graduated in medicine. He was wondering which field to specialize in when a psychiatrist encouraged him to train under him, and later to join DPM course in National Institute of Mental Health and Neurosciences (NIMHANS), where he rose to become a senior professor of psychiatry. He was a pioneer in taking psychiatric services into the community and spreading awareness of mental health throughout Karnataka. In his life he has applied for only three awards given for books. He never lobbied or applied for any awards for himself, yet he has got more than 50 prizes and awards so far. How Chandrashekar broke out of his humble background to become the most popular psychiatrist in Karnataka is a fascinating story. CRC has been conferred Padma Shri award in 2024

FILM MAKING S Anand Rao

This book traces the journey of popular Hindi cinema from 1913 to contemporary times when Bollywood has evolved as a part of India's cultural diplomacy. Avoiding a linear, developmental narrative, the book re-examines the developments through the ruptures in the course of cinematic history. The essays in the volume critically consider transformations of the Hindi film industry from its early days to its present self-referential mode, issues of gender, dance and choreography, Bombay cinema's negotiations with the changing cityscape and urbanisms, and concentrate on its multifarious regional, national and transnational implications in the 21st century. One of the most comprehensive volumes on Bollywood, this work presents an analytical overview of the multiple histories of popular cinema in India and will be useful to scholars and researchers interested in film and media studies, South Asian popular culture and modern India, as well as to cinephiles and general readers alike.

The writings of K.V. Subbanna reveal the range, dimension and courage of an intellectual who never, ever, let the pressures of contemporary cultural politics affect his free and open enquiries into the nature of the culture of the land he was rooted in. K.V. Subbanna was an organic intellectual who drew his intellectual powers from a sense of community that was vibrant and alive and never from the context of a centralising nation-state and its dominant quality of homogenizing practically every aspect of social and cultural life. The spirit of decentralisation was what a community symbolised for Subbanna and all his writings - on literature, theatre, cinema, language - engender this vital principle of decentralization. For that matter even the smallest community was, for him, a complex, heterogeneous universe, quite autonomous at one level, yet, at another, an integral part of the entire globe... In other words, for Subbanna concern for the community also meant a deep commitment to the whole world for the two are part of, and grow from, each other. It was this faith in the 'local' and the 'global' that helped Subbanna locate Ninasam in Heggodu while drawing from ideas, thinkers, artistes from all over the world... This book contains three sections comprising several essays and lectures by Subbanna written and delivered at various points of time; an interview that he conducted and two interviews others conducted with him; and tributes paid to him by two individuals who are important cultural spokespersons of our times and happened to know Subbanna quite intimately.
