This book is a 4- or 10-weeks studying action plan. For the high-level students, they can move direct to the 4 weeks studying action plan by solving the practice tests. For the middle or low-level students, they should follow the 13 weeks action plan. The 10-weeks Studying action plan is divide into two parts as follow: Part 1: Week1 has two topics: sets of numbers and

Week4 has four topics: linear equations, quadratic equations, absolute value equations, and radical equations. Week5 has three topics: exponential equations, rational equations, and inequalities. Part 2: Week6 has three topics: functions, simultaneous equations, and life applications (ages' problems, time-distance problems, and time-work problems). Week7 has three topics: angles relationships, triangle relationships, and circle theorems. Week8 has three topics: coordinate geometry, special polygons, and circle-clock. Week9 has three topics: Geometric solids, sets and probability, and data representation. In weeks 10, there are 15 practice tests which are prepared from the past papers (Taj me'at). CogAT Practice Test (Grade 2) Princeton Review

In this revelatory, authoritative portrait of Donald J. Trump and the toxic family that made him, Mary L. Trump, a trained clinical psychologist and Donald's only niece, shines a bright light on the dark history of their family in order to explain how her uncle became the man who now threatens the world's health, economic security, and social fabric. Mary Trump spent much of her childhood in her grandparents' large, imposing house in the heart of Queens, New York, where Donald and his four siblings grew up. She describes a nightmare of traumas, destructive relationships, and a tragic combination of neglect and abuse. She explains how specific events and general family patterns created the damaged man who currently occupies the Oval Office, including the strange and harmful relationship between Fred Trump and his two oldest sons, Fred Jr. and Donald. A firsthand witness to countless holiday meals and interactions, Mary brings an incisive wit and unexpected humor to sometimes grim, often confounding family events. She recounts in unsparing detail everything from her uncle Donald's place in the family spotlight and Ivana's penchant for regifting to her grandmother's frequent injuries and illnesses and the appalling way Donald, Fred Trump's favorite son, dismissed and derided him when he began to succumb to Alzheimer's. Numerous pundits, armchair psychologists, and journalists have sought to parse Donald J. Trump's lethal flaws. Mary L. Trump has the education, insight, and intimate familiarity needed to reveal what makes Donald, and the rest of her clan, tick. She alone can recount this fascinating, unnerving saga, not just because of her insider's perspective but also because she is the only Trump willing to tell the truth about one of the world's most powerful and dysfunctional families.
