This critique provides a framework for understanding and interpreting the widespread but little-known New Apostolic Reformation (NAR) movement. As the authors state in the preface: "We write this book with two major goals in mind. First, to give people an idea of the sheer size and reach of the NAR movement. And second, to systematize its key teachings and practices and evaluate them on the basis of Scripture and careful reasoning ... . In our judgment, the NAR perspective crosses these boundaries [that is, certain broad parameters, revealed in Scripture and practiced in the historical orthodox church], and it does so in part because of flawed theology rooted in a flawed understanding of Scripture. We wish to warn readers about a possible confusion: Some critics have linked the NAR movement with mainstream Pentecostalism and charismatics. We do not do this. In fact, it is our contention that the NAR movement deviates from classical Pentecostal and charismatic teachings. This movement has emerged out of independent charismatic churches and, thus, has gained a foothold in many of those churches in varying degrees."

The idea is to restructure the church so as to bring back the church that Jesus Christ started and built through the ministry of the Apostles, giving us access to the miracles, signs, and wonders that God has ordained to be part of his church.

The church represents the largest organization in the world, covering all nations, all cultures, and millions of members. Church leadership, like leadership in any organizations, is of vital importance. However, the difference is that Jesus's model of leadership and use of power and authority can be different from leadership in the world of business. The differences between the fivefold ministry gifts and the leadership of elders and deacons are often misunderstood, and the changing nature of church leadership from biblical roots has resulted in several forms of maladaptive leadership in the church today, the most common being the rise of the pastoral supremacy syndrome, where the focus on the pastoral gift has effectively destroyed the fivefold ministry intended to be God's leadership design. This book is about leadership specifically about leadership in God's church.

Many recognize that God is restoring His Church to her true and glorious place in the earth. But how much of these changes do we really understand? This book presents God's plan for leadership and government within the Body of Christ. The Church needs every gift of the five-fold ministry to complete her commission. It is the synergistic work of all five gifts: apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor, and teacher that will bring the light and power of Jesus Christ to a world that is desperately dark and needy.

Ephesians 4: 11-13 describes vocational gifts that Christ gives to the church. Some describe this as the Fivefold ministry or APEST. Books have been written on the topic, but many are written from a personal perspective. In this book, Fishell strives to examine the original author and the original audience's understanding of the Fivefold ministry. He does so by examining the Pauline gifts lists and how the five terms are used in the New Testament. In addition, he addresses related topics to the Fivefold ministry.

Why does the Lord appoint apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers to the church? Ephesians 4:12 says they are bestowed for the perfecting of the saints, the work of the ministry, and to edify the body of Christ. However, these three objectives are best understood in the context of God's purpose. His purpose provides the "why" for understanding the five-fold ministry gifts or the gifts of Christ. From before the foundation of the world, the Father predetermined spiritual blessings in Christ for all humanity. In essence, His purpose is one of unity. The blessings outlined in Ephesians Chapter 1 says that He chose humanity to be His sons, who would share His very nature and be like Him. In short, the Father's simply wanted a family born of His nature, who would reflect His character, and on whom He could bestow an eternal inheritance. Therefore, the gifts of Christ exist in accordance with this purpose. Indeed, each gift has individual responsibilities but collectively, they serve to bring the entire body of Christ into maturity—a unified body that manifests the Father's glory or character. The gifts exist to fulfill the purpose that the Father predetermined from before the foundation of the world. This book discusses all these elements in detail and brings the Father's purpose for the church into perspective in relation to the gifts.

Jesus Our Fivefold Ministry Leader is a thought provoking and exciting book on leadership and team ministry. It defines and outlines the process and context in which Jesus used the fivefold ministry gifts, during his ministry on earth, in a strategic manner in order to build, maintain, and advance the Kingdom. The book gives revelatory truths to how the Tabernacle of Moses relates and gives foundation to the fivefold ministry gifts. Jesus Our Fivefold Ministry Leader deals with the structure of local church government and how the apostle and prophet with Jesus Christ as the chief cornerstone reflect the prophet, priest, and king pattern established in the Old Testament. This book is full of fresh revelation concerning leadership and will eradicate the lone ranger concept of ministry. The biblically-based, time tested principles in this book will ignite and transform your concept of leadership and ministry. Be prepared to move to a higher level, and deeper understanding of the ways of God and his plan for preparing his bride to become mature, attaining to the complete measure of the fullness of Christ.

Understanding Fivefold Ministry What are apostles, and do they still exist in the Church today? How do you recognize a genuine apostle or a false apostle? What about prophets? Do they still exist today? How do you recognize a genuine prophet or a false prophet? What is the true role of a New Testament evangelist? How can you recognize a person functioning in this ministry office? What is the God-given role of pastors? How do you recognize that a person is a true pastor? And what about the New Testament role of a teacher? In this ten-part series, Rick Renner dives into Scripture to help you understand the fivefold ministry in the Church today. According to Ephesians 4:11, these gifts are necessary for believers to reach spiritual maturity. Then why don't we see more of them today and what should we do to encourage the ministries of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers? Find out in this series!

Would you be surprised if an internationally recognized evangelist believes that each person who sits in a pew each week can effectively minister part-time in one of the fivefold ministry offices? Did you know that you could be called to a ministry and that you can actually fulfil the tug on your heart that you have felt for years, but have not had the opportunity to enter into it on any full-time basis? This book is a conversation that Matthew Robert Payne had with the Holy Spirit where he wrote out questions and the Holy Spirit answered them, sometimes at length. Come and hear the Holy Spirit speak on the fivefold ministries and give counsel to the full-time ministers of God, and others who may become part-time ministers, and explain the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Do you feel an urge to listen and sit at the feet of the Teacher and listen to his answers to a humble prophet's questions? Are you ready to capture what the Spirit of the Lord is saying to his ministers in this hour and receive his enlightenment and wisdom as you may be struggling with the roles that you are in right now? This is book 2 in a series called "Conversations with the Holy Spirit."

It gives the reader a deeper understanding about their gifts and calling, and lets the reader know that each person was predestined before they were conceived regarding their purpose and assignment. This book reminds the reader that his/her profession is not his/her purpose. Know Your Calling In The Fivefold Ministry outlines the different gifts given by the Father, by Jesus the Son and by the Holy Spirit and helps the reader to understand that these gifts are given by God's grace, not only for the operation of and within the church, but must also be employed within the secular society to bring about true success and comprehensive prosperity. A man who does not know who he is, nor what spiritual resources he possesses will never lay hold of the level of peace and dominion God created them to have. You may be prospering now, but there is still that void. If that is so, then it is time to Know Your Calling In The Fivefold Ministry.
