Some are quite short, while others are much more lengthy. Not for the faint-hearted, there is lots of talk about sex and some raunchy language. My favorite tale was told by a man who picked up a woman for casual sex and ended up being moved by her life story. Brief Interviews with Hideous Men by David Foster Wallace ... The 23 stories in Brief Interviews with Hideous Men include several stories of the same title whose format is an interview with an interrogator who remains nameless and whose point of view is left completely unspoken, only showing a "Q" when she asks something of the hideous man in question. These stories focus primarily on sexual misogyny and incredibly astute, seemingly convincing arguments for terrible things like rape, sexual enticement, and blatant dishonesty.
