In A Spiritual Approach to Astrology, Myrna Lofthus strives to re-awaken the conscious mind to the intentions and meaning of this lifetime of which the higher self was aware before birth. "Thus," she writes, "you are made aware of what you wished to accomplish and in what areas of life you need the most work and understanding." Drawing upon the universal teachings of reincarnation as expressed in Edgar Cayce's work, Myrna Lofthus illuminates the karmic patterns reflected in the birth chart. Dozens of charts and illustrations help the reader to understand the astronomical and the theoretical foundations of the birth chart. The lengthy section on aspects not only explains their karmic meaning but includes interpretations of the 40° ("nonagen" or "novile") and the 150° ("quincunx") aspects, as well as aspects to the Moon's nodes, Part of Fortune, Ascendant, and Midheaven, all of which are rarely found in other books. This comprehensive guide places astrology within a spiritual context and makes it accessible to novice students with no prior knowledge of astrology as well as advanced students seeking specialized information on the subtler implications of astrological configurations. Myrna Lofthus, a lifelong student of world religions and philosophies, graduated Magna Cum Laude from Pacific Lutheran University. Strongly influenced in her search for truth by the philosophy of Edgar Cayce and by the astrological concepts of Isabel Hickey, Myrna Lofthus has come to view astrology as a way an individual can find the main purpose of this incarnation.

NOW WITH AN

UPDATED ECLIPSE

to 2050! This mini-book on the astrology topic, Eclipse!, brings a modern-day approach to working with the energy of this cosmic phenomenon from an astrological and metaphysical perspective to the general public. It includes 14 years of past and future data on eclipses (2007 to 2020). In the past the ancients may have been believed an eclipse foreshadowed doom, illness and war, barbarians overrunning the country, failed harvests and drought, or an abundant harvest, the marriage of kings, and the birth of heirs. Today when a Solar or Lunar Eclipse happens in the heavens above us, many of us feel the burst of energy all around. You may be familiar with the saying: "As above, so below." At the time of an eclipse, important things are happening in the world. We can check the news on the day of any Eclipse and the headlines will reveal the energy of "As Above". If we look into our personal lives, our homes, our cities, the lives of the people we know, we see the reflection of this energy on a personal level Astrologer Diane Ronngren reminds us this is one of the the best times to focus on our own lives, to get in touch with what's going on from a personal perspective. Not every eclipse triggers personal drama or the need to make significant change in our lives. However every eclipse provides an opportunity to re-focus on our goals, our direction. If we are not satisfied with some areas of our life, we'll have enough energy to make necessary changes. Both Solar and Lunar Eclipses bring opportunities to discover solutions, handle issues, create new habits or meet new people. These new activities and new influences help us to grow and improve our lives over time. Each experience brings more insight and awareness about how we are in charge of the way we live our lives.

Each time we focus on something that's important to us, we practice how to better connect with the energy of life all around.

Rudolf Steiner

demonstrates that there are twelve main philosophical standpoints, and that the future of philosophy rests not upon defending one and refuting the others, but in learning to experience the validity of them all. What convinces us of the truth of a certain point of view? Why do we find it difficult to comprehend viewpoints that differ from our own? What are the inner foundations of our knowledge? In these concentrated and aphoristic lectures, Steiner speaks of twelve main philosophical standpoints, and the importance of understanding each of them. An appreciation of the variety of possible world views not only sharpens and makes more flexible our own powers of thinking, but helps us to overcome a narrow-minded one-sidedness, promoting tolerance of other people and their opinions. Steiner goes on to explain how each standpoint is also coloured by a particular 'soul mood', which influences the way we actively pursue knowledge. Several philosophers and their works are characterised in this manner, throwing light on their contributions to human culture. Through such insight into the true nature of human thinking, we are led to understand the quality of cosmic thought and how, in Rudolf Steiner's words, the human being can be seen as a 'thought which is thought by the Hierarchies of the cosmos’.

Astrology of the Lunar

Practicing Western astrologer Agneta Borstein uses an East-West astrological approach to the lunar nodes, their role in synastry, and their importance in the process of the evolving soul. In addition, her familiarity with the Vedic system and its mythology brings a unique perspective to her interpretation of the nodes. This is a revised and expanded edition of The Moon's Nodes. A Churning Process of the Soul first published in 2004 expands on the nodes in synastry and their roles in our relationships. It presents the Hindu myths related to the nodes with an emphasis on the goddesses as consorts to the male deities and how their stories connect to the Lunar nodes. Borstein presents the fundamental facts about the Moon's Nodes and includes a discussion of the True and Mean Node and information on the nodal cycle in transit, natal signs and houses of the nodes and their meaning, especially in how to move from the wounded soul, represented by the South Node, to higher consciousness, represented by the North Node. Includes a fascinating synastry study of Angelina, our modern day goddess, and her consort Brad Pitt with an interpretation of the ties that knot them together.

 Now with an updated list of Mercury Retrogrades from 2020 through 2050! Every astrological symbol represents both positive and challenging energies, just as all experience can be perceived simplistically as "good" or "bad", depending on our level of awareness. Author and Astrology teacher Diane Ronngren asks us to consider that each of the astrological symbols represents an 'energy coin' available to us to use as we choose in order to benefit our own personal growth. Mercury Retrograde periods of time have become known for the tangled communication and disruptive energy that we experience in the course of our daily lives. Many areas of life are possible areas of interest/concern when Mercury is Retrograde. Think about all of the various ways we communicate, connect, and share information with one another: email, cellphone, facebook, texting, twitter, etc., etc. We get into our cars, take the bus or the train, or book a flight (or a cruise) in order to get from one place to another--that's us commuting so that we can connect and share time/space/ideas with others. The flow of business can be affected in myriad ways, as can any of the systems of our bodies and the work of medical and health care providers. If you experience challenges in any of the above areas, these represent examples of one side of the Mercury Retrograde energy coin. Let's look at what the benefits might be-- let's take advantage of this powerful energy in a really good way! This ebook explores exciting possibilities for everyone to benefit during the course of this transit. Since Mercury is Retrograde more than 19% of the time, it can be helpful to know the times to be prepared to deal with any challenges, and be ready to discover ways to have fun with your transit! (Includes dates of Mercury Retrograde transits from 2020 through 2050.)
