What do women want? This is a question that has baffled men since the beginning of time and men are no closer to understanding women than we were when we huddled around an open fire every night and lived in caves. Why are women so hard to decipher? Simply because we try to understand them from a man's point of view without understanding the basic premise that women think differently from men. In fact, women have completely different wiring from that of men and men will never be able to understand them on a logical level, which is how men approach almost everything. Think about it. What do we do when we get together for some fun? We definitely aren't sharing feelings. No, we drink, talk about sports and other apparently innocuous subjects which in fact are a hidden form of competition. You know, the mine's bigger than yours syndrome. However, for guys this is absolutely natural. On the other hand, when women get together they share their feelings; they watch chick flicks and talk about the latest diet or article in town. You see, women are mainly driven by emotion. Just as we need logic and structure in our lives, they need emotion. Men thrive on competition, adrenaline, power, domination, while women couldn't really care less about them. The idea is that if you really want to be able to date any girl, no matter how attractive she is, you need to know what drives her, what her underlying motives are. Now, don't take this the wrong way because many women have no conscious idea of what drives them or what their motives are; it's just the way nature has wired them. However, just as you need to know what drives her, you need to stop worrying about it making sense. It is never going to make sense to us because we see things differently. But, if you know what her buttons are then you will be able to play sweet music that she won't be able to resist. Remember knowledge is power and you like power, don't you? Well, learn what drives women and then you will have it in spades.

Is there anything I can do to please him or make him happy again? How can I get him to treat me nicely? And so much more. The #1 New York Times Bestseller “An engaging look at the often head-scratching, frequently infuriating mating behaviors that shape our love lives.” —Refinery 29 A hilarious, thoughtful, and in-depth exploration of the pleasures and perils of modern romance from Aziz Ansari, the star of Master of None and one of this generation’s sharpest comedic voices At some point, every one of us embarks on a journey to find love. We meet people, date, get into and out of relationships, all with the hope of finding someone with whom we share a deep connection. This seems standard now, but it’s wildly different from what people did even just decades ago. Single people today have more romantic options than at any point in human history. With technology, our abilities to connect with and sort through these options are staggering. So why are so many people frustrated? Some of our problems are unique to our time. “Why did this guy just text me an emoji of a pizza?” “Should I go out with this girl even though she listed Combos as one of her favorite snack foods? Combos?!” “My girlfriend just got a message from some dude named Nathan. Who’s Nathan? Did he just send her a photo of his penis? Should I check just to be sure?” But the transformation of our romantic lives can’t be explained by technology alone. In a short period of time, the whole culture of finding love has changed dramatically. A few decades ago, people would find a decent person who lived in their neighborhood. Their families would meet and, after deciding neither party seemed like a murderer, they would get married and soon have a kid, all by the time they were twenty-four. Today, people marry later than ever and spend years of their lives on a quest to find the perfect person, a soul mate. For years, Aziz Ansari has been aiming his comic insight at modern romance, but for Modern Romance, the book, he decided he needed to take things to another level. He teamed up with NYU sociologist Eric Klinenberg and designed a massive research project, including hundreds of interviews and focus groups conducted everywhere from Tokyo to Buenos Aires to Wichita. They analyzed behavioral data and surveys and created their own online research forum on Reddit, which drew thousands of messages. They enlisted the world’s leading social scientists, including Andrew Cherlin, Eli Finkel, Helen Fisher, Sheena Iyengar, Barry Schwartz, Sherry Turkle, and Robb Willer. The result is unlike any social science or humor book we’ve seen before. In Modern Romance, Ansari combines his irreverent humor with cutting-edge social science to give us an unforgettable tour of our new romantic world.

For both men and women, dating is not easy. There are no tricks and no easy route to take in order to be able to date the person you want. To be successful in dating you have to be aware of what you're doing, which means that you have to also know what to not do during a date. For men, they are usually expected to take the initiative so it's a lot harder for them to muster the courage to ask a woman out on a date with them. For women, the issue lies within being able to get a date with a man that they have an interest in. That's why, for your convenience, I've included tips for both men and women. The beauty to this is that you can also take a peek at what your partner might be looking for or what they might not like. A better advantage for you to start with.

So, you reached forty. Or maybe you haven't quite yet. But you'll get there soon enough. And when you do---whether that's now or in a couple of years' time---you'll need to know precisely what you need to do to get results with the girls you want to date. Perhaps you've been married. Maybe you're divorced, or a split looks imminent. Maybe you have kids.Maybe the dating scene is a dim and distant memory to you.Or perhaps you've been playing the field for a while, but you'd benefit from the experience and insights of a player in his forties who regularly dates beautiful girls all over the world. After all, when you were at university it was all so easy---you'd simply have a few drinks, go to the bar and meet a girl. These days there is Tinder and Bumble and Happn, not to mention all the social networks like Facebook, Instagram and Snap. Everything seems so complicated.Plus as a guy in his forties you're still interested in the same kinds of girls you always were: hot young things with a bit of sass and feistiness.That picture of Emily Ratakowski never fails to perk you up.And you don't see things changing any time soon. But where will you meet the kinds of girls you like? And how will you make it so that you're attractive to them? And how will you relate to them?Most importantly, how will you get over the mental barriers that you will inevitably face as a 40+ guy out playing the field?STILL IN THE GAME answers all these questions and more.- Understand the challenges, issues and hidden traps that any player in his forties and beyond will face out in the field. - Read Troy's own personal story, revealing the secret truths about how he came to avoid the regular path of marriage and remain a player into his forties. - Learn exactly how you can break out of the 'matrix' of conventional thinking to free yourself up for a life of sexual and romantic variety. - Go deep into the mindsets that you need to develop so that you are rock-solid in your confidence about meeting girls. - Find out how to remain young without looking like a dick, and how best to relate to younger women. - Discover the precise structure of game that Troy uses right now as a 40+ man to meet beautiful women. - Consider relationships and the conflicts that they can bring, and how best you can negotiate these. - Take a no-bull look at the downsides of the player lifestyle. - Eradicate your fears about the endgame. Do I have to ask where all of this is going? Will I still have to be hitting on girls when I'm seventy? Or can I find huge excitement, happiness and contentment through the player lifestyle?Let's face it. There's a ton of game advice out there but the vast majority of it is aimed at younger guys. And as STILL IN THE GAME makes clear, the principles of attraction are the same whatever your age. There are no silver bullets. But the main thing that holds guys in their 40s back from success is not so much game techniques as much as the mindsets that they hold. If you can just make a few subtle tweaks to your mindset then you will immediately start to make huge leaps forward in your dating life. This book will teach you how.

Why Men Marry Some Women and Not Others Penguin

"When you start training your dog (or dating a man), it is a good idea to have three bottom-line rules that you enforce no matter what . . ." DOGS No sleeping on the bed. No jumping up on people. No eating people's food. MEN Be consistent. Have a sense of humor. Be financially self-sufficient. Hilarious, insightful, witty, and wise, Clare Staples is saying what most women have been thinking. And in Everything I Know About Men I Learned From My Dog, the former model and party girl turned relationship expert proves that what works for the four-legged companion in a woman's life can work equally well for the two-legged variety. Divided into immediately evident categories, such as "Selecting a Breed" and "How to Stay the Boss," and packed with good-humored observations and practical advice, Everything I Know About Men I Learned From My Dog is the perfect field guide to any girl's two most complicated companions -- her dog and her man. From choosing the right personality to figuring out your companion's quirks and idiosyncrasies, dog ownership and human relationships can be complex affairs. What do you do when he bares his teeth or is a little clingy? How do you reward him when he is good and scold him when he is naughty? With Clare Staples's simple, clever tips, your relationships with both species will be happier and more successful. DON'T GO FOR LOOKS MAN: Handsome men are never a great bet. Often they have learned to rely on their looks and have not had to develop a personality or sense of humor -- far more important qualities. DOG: Don't choose a dog for looks alone. Looks are only skin-deep -- loyalty, devotion, and eagerness to please and unconditional love are the most wonderful things. DON'T CHANGE YOUR LIFESTYLE MAN: When you first meet your man, don't change anything for him. Don't give up your friends or hobbies. Never cancel anything to be with him. DOG: When you first get a dog, chances are he will whine when you leave him alone, but he'll get used to it and appreciate you more when you spend quality time with him. GIVE POSITIVE REWARDS MAN: When your man does something that you like -- such as brings you a present -- reward him. Give him a treat, spoil him. DOG: All dogs love praise.
