The book is about a law-abiding common man's journey and what he sees and experiences during his life span, about happenings in various fields like politics, scandal/scams, personalities, sports, achievement/disappointments, Entertainment, and lastly his personal journey. The things are broken into decade-wise chapters. Readers of this book will feel as if it is part of their journey also. BollySwar: 2001 - 2010 Ajitabha Publishers

"Picture abhi baaki hai mere dost"; "Don ko pakadna mushkil hi nahi namumkin hai"; "Jo main bolta hun, Woh main karta hun. Jo main nahi bolta woh main definitely karta hun" Lines from well-remembered films (or 'dialogues' as we call them), are part of the currency of our everyday speech. Climactic scenes are unforgettably etched in our minds. Yes, we don't just watch movies, we internalize them. How many times, have you selected a movie shuffling through multiple reviews and ratings only to find that what you see on screen is very different from what you were led to believe? You wonder if they were written more objectively and someone like you could tell what to expect? Here is an attempt to do just that. First Day, Last Show takes you through an engrossing journey of movies seen through the eyes of a common cinemagoer. The book is a bouquet of impressions about films gathered over a period of four years. You will relate to these views easily, even if you have not seen or heard about the movie earlier. All you need is to be a fairly regular cinema goer. If you love movies, you will love reading First Day, Last Show.

BollySwar is a decade-wise compendium of information about the music of Hindi films. Volume 7 chronicles the Hindi film music of the decade between 1991 and 2000. This volume catalogues more than 1000 films and 7000 songs, involving more than 1000 music directors, lyricists and singers. An overview of the decade highlights the key artists of the decade - music directors, lyricists and singers - and discusses the emerging trends in Hindi film music. A yearly review provides listings of the year's top artists and songs and describes the key milestones of the year in Hindi film music. The bulk of the book provides the song listing of every Hindi film album released in the decade. Basic information about each film's cast and crew is provided and detailed music credits are provided. Where available, music credits go beyond information regarding music directors, lyricists and singers, and include the names of session musicians, assistants, programmers, arrangers, mixers, recordists, etc. Where applicable, music related awards are listed. Interesting trivia is listed for most films. This includes information about artist debuts, plagiarised or sampled songs, controversies and stories behind the making of the film and its music. This book is primarily meant as a quick reference for people looking for information related to a Hindi film or a song, but readers can also browse through the book to get an overview of the events that shaped Bollywood music in the decade. Given that Hindi films are a reflection of the Indian society, the reader can also glean insights about the country's socio-political and cultural environment from the book. Down Bollywood Street, On Melody Beat Oxford University Press, USA

A gramophone record that didn't carry a name. A train that went up in flames. Shoes that identified a villain. Shoes that identified a hero. A cap that everyone wanted. A bag of diamonds that no one got. The Bollywood Pocketbook of Iconic Things lists 50 iconic items that have become symbolic of the Hindi film industry. Things that changed the definition of romance. Things that united the nation. Things that define a generation. These are things that have transcended from the movie screens to our lives, things that have kept us awake for many moonlit nights. Whether you're a trivia buff or a die hard Bollywood fan, or on your way to converting detractors into becoming one, this must-have book will have you humming 'Mera kuchh saamaan...!' Cine Blitz Penguin UK "Mission Accomplished!!" flashes a WhatsApp message on three phones simultaneously!! The owners of the three phones have not met each other before, but the sender of the WhatsApp message to each of them is the same person!! The three phones belong to Rohini, Shimoli & Vaidehi, wives of three friends- Dev , Rajiv and Amol respectively, who along with their fourth friend Vishesh, have gone for an outing to Manali & Shimla and are on their way back to Mumbai. The message instantly brings a smile to each of the three ladies, as they are about to leave for Chhatrapati Shivaji Airport at Mumbai to receive their respective husbands. This story is about the trip made by the four friends who met after 28 years and decided to go on a "re union" trip together. Four friends who are now in their forties, were together in high school and during graduation in Pune. Facebook brought them together. Each had a life- story to tell. How did this trip change their lives? How did the turn of events make each of the four friends share their burning flame which they had within themselves? What sort of a "growing up" trip this was, for all of them? Keep reading!!

FRIENDS I HAVE WRITTEN THIS BOOK RELATED TO PLAYBACK SINGING WHICH WILL BE VERY MUCH USEFUL TO ALL THE MUSIC LOVERS OF OUR COUNTRY. THE MAIN PURPOSE OF THE BOOK IS TO FIND OUT THE NEW SUITABLE PLAYBACK SINGER WHO CAN SET GREAT STANDARDS OF

PLAYBACK SINGING. THIS IS EXTREMELY ESSENTIAL FOR EVERY FILM BECAUSE IT CONTRIBUTES A LOT TO THE SUCCESS OF ANY FILM AS HAS BEEN AMPLY DISPLAYED IN THE PAST. MOHAMMED RAFI, MUKESH, KISHORE KUMAR, LATA MANGESHKAR AND ASHA BHONSLE HAVE SET SUCH STANDARDS OF PLAYBACK SINGING THAT NOBODY INCLUDING OTHER NOTABLE SINGERS CAN COME NEAR TO THAT FANTASTIC LEVEL OF SINGING. IT IS ALTOGETHER DIFFERENT.

I HAVE JUSTIFIED THIS POINT IN DETAIL IN MY BOOK. HOPEFULLY, THIS BOOK WILL BE OF GREAT SIGNIFICANCE TO OUR FILM INDUSTRY, ONE IT CAPTURES THE MARKET. First Day, Last Show

This title surveys the music of seventy years of Hindi films and provides a long-term investigation of film songs and their musical and cinematic conventions. Focusing on the music of Hindi language films (id est Bollywood) in their historical, social, and commercial contexts, the author pays special attention to the meanings that songs generate inside and outside film narratives and within Indian society at large.

Shortlisted for the DSC Prize for South Asian Literature 2016 Mirza Waheed's extraordinary new novel The Book of Gold Leaves is a heartbreaking love story set in war-torn Kashmir. In an ancient house in the city of Srinagar, Faiz paints exquisite Papier Mache pencil boxes for tourists. Evening is beginning to slip into night when he sets off for the shrine. There he finds the woman with the long black hair. Roohi is prostrate before her God. She begs for the boy of her dreams to come and take her away. Roohi wants a love story. An age-old tale of love, war, temptation, duty and choice, The Book of Gold Leaves is a heartbreaking tale of a what might have been, what could have been, if only. 'I loved it.

The voice is lyrical, to match the beauty of Kashmir, and yet it is tinged with melancholy and grief, as is the story it tells' Nadeem Aslam (on The Collaborator) 'Waheed's prose burns with the fever of anger and despair; the scenes in the valley are exceptional, conveying, a hallucinatory living nightmare that has become an everyday reality for Kashmiris' Metro (on The Collaborator) Mirza Waheed was born and brought up in Kashmir. His debut novel The Collaborator was shortlisted for the Guardian First Book Award and the Shakti Bhat Prize, and longlisted for the Desmond Elliott Prize. Between 1931 and 2000, India's popular cinema steadily overcame Hollywood domination. Bollywood, the film industry centered in Mumbai, became nothing less than a global cultural juggernaut. But Bollywood is merely one part of the country's prolific, multilingual cinema. Unruly Cinema looks at the complex series of events that allowed the entire Indian film industry to defy attempts to control, reform, and refine it in the twentieth century and beyond. Rini Bhattacharya Mehta considers four aspects of Indian cinema's complicated history. She begins with the industry's surprising, market-driven triumph over imports from Hollywood and elsewhere in the 1930s. From there she explores how the nationalist social melodrama outwitted the government with its 1950s cinematic lyrical manifestoes. In the 1970s, an action cinema centered on the angry young male co-opted the voice of the oppressed. Finally, Mehta examines Indian film's discovery of the global neoliberal aesthetic that encouraged the emergence of Bollywood. Standout with your Heart Ashgate Publishing, Ltd. It's a tale about a boy named Abhilash. They were childhood friends and their family was too close to each other, holding hands in a small town their relation nourished! After their engagement, They moved to Amsterdam for pursuing their medical degrees, but life was so unpredictable and things started to shatter bit by bit. It's a completely true saga of love, intimacy, romance and loss. Avantika was among the people we call pure soul, but as said nothing is permanent and it includes the lives of your near and dear once too. The heart-wrenching story of Avantika and Abhilash. India Today University of Illinois Press Senior journalist, writer, and filmmaker Maann Singh Deep is a popular name in cinema and journalism as well. By joining the film industry, besides making successful films such as 'Gunahgaar', 'Jurmana', 'Raja Bhaiya', 'Krishnavatar', 'Karantikshetra' and 'Gahri Chaal', he also produced a TV Serial "Ashiyaana", aired on Doordarshan National

Channel, which was a very popular serial of that time. In the early years of life, the writer started his career as a journalist and in addition to the Times of India, Hindustan Times and Anand Bazar Patrika Group, he wrote regular stories and poems in hundreds of other journals of India's other publishing house. He continued the amazing love associated with writing, despite being a writer-producer. Written in the same period, the writer's 4 main novels are 'Ret Ka Mahal', 'Phir Lautati Zindagi', 'Sapno ki

Talaash' and 'Meri Tutu'. Leading towards continuous writing, Maan Singh Deep, has given unique contribution to literature. The film world is called a dream world. The common perception of people living in this world is that most people in the film world live their lives by masking their faces, like as they have come from another world. There are very few people who are related to reality, they neither do any show-off nor they deceive anyone, but most of the people have put a mask on their face. This book is a memorandum of the author of "Bollywood Secrets". Whatever has happened, the author has presented it very honestly in this book. After reading this book, readers will have an opportunity to learn a lot about the people of the film world and to understand many other things. This book contains such an interesting memoir that you have never read in any of the film journals. Journey Of A Common Man Born In Independent India Anybook

Music in Contemporary Indian Film: Memory, Voice, Identity provides a rich and detailed look into the unique dimensions of music in Indian film. Music is at the center of Indian cinema, and India’s film music industry has a far-reaching impact on popular, folk, and classical music across the subcontinent and the South Asian diaspora. In twelve essays written by an international array of scholars, this book explores the social, cultural, and musical aspects of the industry, including both the traditional center of "Bollywood" and regional film-making. Concentrating on films and songs created in contemporary, post-liberalization India, this book will appeal to classes in film studies, media studies, and world music, as well as all fans of Indian films. The Story So Far Springer
