Its goal is the successful design and operation of chemical reactors, and probably more than any other activity, it sets chemical engineering apart as a distinct branch of the engineering profession. CH 204: Chemical Reaction Engineering - lecture notes Chemical reaction engineering aims at studying and optimizing chemical reactions in order to define the best reactor design. Hence, the interactions of flow phenomena, mass transfer, heat transfer, and reaction kinetics are of prime importance in order to relate reactor performance to feed composition and operating conditions.
