The Rape Of Nanking
Lippincott Williams &

In late 1999 the world watched as a small country became the world's newest nation amid a frenzy of destruction and killing. Now, Deliverance tells the inside story of East Timor's agony, drawing on hundreds of secret documents and dozens of 'off the record' interviews with government and military insiders in Indonesia, Australia, the United States, and the UN. It paints a startling picture of Indonesia's bloody retreat from East Timor after a brutal 24-year occupation. Unparalleled access to sources in Jakarta and Canberra and many months of patient research have enabled the authors to strip away the myths and self-interested accounts to reveal in close and hitherto unreported detail the real story - from a distracted president's bold decision, to an internationally monitored ballot, to descent into the cauldron of violence and the arrival of the peace keepers. Was the murderous violence really carried out by 'rogue elements', as the Australian government would have us believe? Who in Indonesia gave the green light to the program whereby the Indonesian military, assisting the UN in supervising the referendum, were also tasked with ensuring its failure by all available means? Was PM John Howard's efforts to rally support for international action at the Auckland APEC meeting his finest hour? Could Australia have done more to avert the bloodshed? Why wasn't planning for the peacekeeping operation taken seriously in Canberra until two weeks before Interfet landed? These are just a few of the questions answered in this groundbreaking account. Deliverance is a classic of investigative journalism. If there is only one account you read of East Timor's struggle for nationhood, this should be it.

It is May 1998, and riots have sprung up across Indonesia with attacks targeting the ethnic Chinese. Buildings are being set alight all around as helpless crowds watch their communities burn to the ground. Nina, a young Indonesian woman of Chinese descent, feels compelled to help her fellow student activists but finds herself in harm's way amid the mass gang-raping of Chinese women. Despite the government's best efforts to deny these allegations, the lives of many were dramatically changed by the traumatic events. Nina's heart-breaking experience is laced with cultural imagery and an emotional depth that will leave you awed. 'A POWERFUL AND ENGAGING STORY ABOUT A NATIONAL SCANDAL THE NATION PREFERS TO DENY OR FORGET. A MUST-READ FOR ANYONE INTERESTED IN CONTEMPORARY INDONESIA AND HER RECENT PAST.' ARIEL HERYANTO, MONASH UNIVERSITY, MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA 'DEWI ANGGRAENI CREATES POIGNANT, INTERWEAVING PLOTS OF THREE GENERATIONS OF

Jalan panjang menuju demokrasi SAGE

Awal dan akhir suatu perjalanan mustahil diungkapkan, tetapi begitu melangkah, tak ada kekuatan dari luar yang dapat menghentikan. Setiap langkah adalah doa. Di dalamnya ada yang berlalu dan yang baru, namun yang lalu adalah baru dan yang baru segera lalu, dengan Waktu sebagai Sang Penentu. Di dalam waktu, semua datang untuk pergi dan yang pergi akan hadir lagi dalam bungkus lain. Semuanya menyertai perjalanan sampai di penghujung, entah di mana, karena bukan itu tujuanku. Proses berjalan; adalah yang lebih penting. Meski demikian, kujumpai stasi demi stasi untuk mengambil napas; pemberhentian untuk melihat kembali tapak demi tapak yang menyilam dan menatapnya dalam-dalam. Kemudian, kulanjutkan perjalanan. Camino

Santiago—Lourdes—Plum Village—Oran dan Mostaganem adalah serangkaian perjalanan antara 2013-2014 menuju titik kulminasi tentang hakikat pencarian dan kerinduan menemukan Jalan Pulang. Aku menjalani Jalan; lalu Jalan itu berjalan di dalam diriku, sepanjang waktuku.

Human Rights between Idealism and Realism presents human rights in action, focusing on their effectiveness as legal tools designed to benefit human beings. By combining conceptual analysis with an emphasis on procedures and mechanisms of implementation, this volume provides a multidimensional overview of human rights. After examining briefly the history of human rights, the author analyses the intellectual framework that forms the basis of their legitimacy. In particular, he covers the concept of universality and the widely used model that classifies human rights into clusters of different 'generations'. The volume then moves on to analyse of the activities of the political institutions of the United Nations, the expert bodies established by the relevant treaties, and the international tribunals specifically entrusted at the regional level with protecting human rights. The author explains how and why the classical array of politically inspired informal devices has been enriched by the addition of international criminal procedures and by endeavours to introduce civil suits against alleged individual violators of human rights. Finally, the volume is rounded off by a consideration of the importance of humanitarian law as an instrument for the protection of human life and dignity and an exploration of the future of human rights. Victims of Crime Lynne Rienner Publishers This unique handbook educates readers in how drugs are used as weapons in committing sexual assaults. It is designed for everyone involved in the investigation of these crimes including forensic scientists, law enforcement officers, lawyers, toxicologists, and medical professionals. Drug-Facilitated Sexual Assault looks at the history of these crimes over the years and includes an in-depth discussion of the drugs and drug classes in use today. It describes the effects of these drugs on the victims, the type of person who uses drugs to sexually assault an individual, and obstacles to investigating the suspect. The authors show how to properly collect and analyze evidence, overcome some of the unique difficulties encountered in these types of investigations, and work with other professionals to prosecute these cases successfully.

* Ideal for everyone involved in the investigation of these crimes, including forensic scientists, police officers, lawyers, toxicologists and medical professionals

Menulis itu bukan cuma sulit, tapi sulit sekali. Ada juga yang bilang, menulis itu gampang. Bahkan, gampang sekali. Buku ini tidak membenturkan dua pendapat itu. Tapi, memaparkan perihal “menulis itu membaca berulang-ulang”. Berkariier di dunia kepenulisan sejak 1986, Kang Maman pun membuka rahasia sederhana “mengail 100 ide dalam sehari”. Bukan omong kosong, 24 buku tercipta dalam 8 tahun adalah salah satu buktinya. Belum terhitung karya tulisnya yang tertuang di berbagai media, dialihwahanakan menjadi lirik lagu, acara radio dan televisi berbagai genre, pertunjukan panggung, dan ratusan film pendek melalui festival film pendek yang diadakan Gramedia dan belasan karya akhir mahasiswa institut seni di Yogyakarta. Bagi Kang Maman, “Menulis itu mengasyikkan, menghasilkan dan membahagiakan.” Ia bagikan hal itu di buku ini, agar semua orang bisa menulis dan berbahagia. Deleuze's Cinema Books Academic Press

The essays in this volume discuss narrative strategies employed by international writers when dealing with rape and sexual violence, whether in fiction, poetry, memoir, or drama. In developing these new feminist readings of rape narratives, the contributors aim to incorporate arguments about trauma and resistance in order to establish new dimensions of healing. This book makes a vital contribution to the fields of literary studies and feminism, since while other volumes have focused on retroactive portrayals of rape in literature, to date none has focused entirely on the subversive work that is being done to retheorize sexual violence. Split into four sections, the volume considers sexual violence from a number of different angles. 'Subverting the Story' considers how the characters of the victim and rapist might be subverted in narratives of sexual violence. In 'Metaphors for

Resistance,' the essays explore how writers approach the subject of rape obliquely using metaphors to represent their suffering and pain. The controversy of not speaking about sexual violence is the focus of 'The Protest of Silence,' while 'The Question of the Visual' considers the problems of making sexual violence visible in the poetic image, in film and on stage. These four sections cover an impressive range of world writing which includes curriculum staples like

Toni Morrison, Sarah Kane, Sandra Cisneros, Yvonne Vera, and Sharon Olds.

The end of authoritarian rule in 1998 ushered in an exhilarating but unsettled period of democratization in Indonesia. A more open political climate converged with a rapidly changing media landscape, yielding a vibrant and volatile public sphere within which Indonesians grappled with the possibilities and limits of democracy amid entrenched corruption, state violence, and rising forms of intolerance. In Demanding Images Karen Strassler theorizes image-events as political processes in which publicly circulating images become the material ground of struggles over the nation's past, present, and future. Considering photographs, posters, contemporary art, graffiti, selfies, memes, and other visual media, she argues that people increasingly engage with politics through acts of making, circulating, manipulating, and scrutinizing images. Demanding Images is both a closely observed account of Indonesia's turbulent democratic transition and a globally salient analysis of the work of images in the era of digital media and neoliberal democracy. Strassler reveals politics today to be an unruly enterprise profoundly shaped by the affective and evidentiary force of images.
