A Life on Top Novel University-Press.org
 Text in English, French & German. In 2004 Rolling Stone declared Penthouse "The greatest adult magazine in history". From humble beginnings as a project started to fund an art collection, Penthouse eventually became one of the worlds most notorious publications, creating a new style of mens magazine. Originally published in the United States in 1969 by Bob Guccione, Penthouse helped lead the shift in sexual perception during the 70s. By giving readers the type of erotic content they craved, Guccione and his brazen approach helped Penthouse magazine reach a monthly circulation of 4 million. Today, Penthouse is a leading lifestyle brand, symbolising the aspirations and desires of the new generation. Celebrating 45 years, this book is a compilation of some of the most beautiful women ever to grace the pages of this iconic publication. Visually stunning and full of the erotic images one would expect only from Penthouse, this book will excite and tantalise millions of fans around the world.

 Atlanta-born Victoria Johnson quickly became one of the 70's top commercial models selling camera, airlines, shampoo, lipstick and on TV as the wholesome mom for Shake'n'Bake and the definitive 80's urban cowgirl for Jordache Jeans. When the legendary publisher of Penthouse Magazine Bob Guccione photographed her, she became the ultimate centerfold, crowning her the Penthouse Pet of the Decade giving her international fame, and millions of fans, some famous and infamous. Hollywood beckoned with movie parts, roles on top-rated TV shows, and a poster whose sales rivalled those of Farrah Fawcett's. She walked away from the false glamour of it all, and the demons that came with it, and ran to Europe finding love and loss, among the rich, royals and aristocracy. But she realized her real talent was making friends. The readers are treated to the worlds of 70's New York, 80's Los Angeles and 90's Eurotrash -- meeting a host of celebrities and notorious names at elite clubs, restaurants, and resorts that recall a scandalous, chic world long gone but still a subject for gossip and whispers. Victoria's life took a sudden turn when she was diagnosed with Stage IV Cancer and decides to determine how she was going to save her life. Houston's M.D.Anderson became her lifeblood where for the next 20 years she recreated herself as patient and student learning through questions, research, and self-awareness what her body was going through. She kept records for each medical consultation, surgery, miracle drugs, and treatment to determine her personal cause and effect, while relying on her Holistic Medicine degree for advice on topics to improve her daily well-being, and she kept herself fortified and encouraged by her strong faith. She made her life a blueprint for cancer survivors, as a speaker at conferences, symposiums, and the Komen Breast Cancer Foundation events as well as appearances on CNN and PBS. Honest, entertaining, and inspirational, Naked: Inside and Out is a book that tells you how to break the rules when life is no longer being fair. And Kenny thank you for these last few days -- I got to fill my late hours just thinking about Victoria and her life and how to put it in words.

There aren't many rules that gorgeous glamour model Bella Steele hasn't broken. However, there is one she's always observed: best friends should never compete for men, jobs, or real estate. When Maya Lin, the stunning Asian beauty Bella took under her wing when she began modeling, is named the Penthouse Pet of the Month, Bella's rule is challenged: the two friends find themselves rivals for the title of ultimate sex bomb - Pet of the Year. It's a trophy Bella's always wanted, and she's not about to take this challenge lying down. Maya has a few tricks up her garter herself, and New York City will never be the same as these sultry sirens face off at its hottest clubs and photo ops. Meanwhile, Sophie Steele, Bella's younger sister, leaves the world of professional poker to reclaim her dominance in the banking world - a decision that threatens her relationship with her boyfriend, Tai. And the only way into her dream job at a hot new hedge fund is through former frenemy Regina Chase. Regina has spent most of her time since moving to New York looking for love in all the wrong places. She longs for Sophie's breezy, confident style—can she unleash her own wild side by joining the erotic after-hours scene?

Travis Smith has tough choices to make when money, emotions, and loyalties pull him in different directions. Operating in the shadows of Reno's flashing lights brings sizzling encounters with exotic sex workers, bundles of dirty money, and unavoidable brushups with local bad guys. He thought quick wits and an air tight hustle were all he needed, but when push comes to shove, the real test begins. When his world is disrupted and the chaos of a casino town start closing in, he finds peace in the slow-growing passion of an outsider, but it may be too late to cash out . . .

This bold and original book examines in detail a relatively new genre of film--the erotic thriller. Linda Ruth Williams traces the genre's exploitation of pornography and noir, discusses mainstream stars (including Michael Douglas and Sharon Stone) as well as genre-branded direct-to-video stars, charts the work of key producers and directors, and considers home videos as a distinct form of viewing pleasure. She maps the history of the genre, analyzing hundreds of movies from blockbusters such as Basic Instinct, Fatal Attraction, and In the Cut to straight-to-video film titles such as Carnal Crimes, Sins of Desire, and Night Eyes. Williams's witty and illuminating readings tell the story of this sensational genre and contribute to the analysis of mainstream screen sex--and its censorship--at the beginning of the 21st century. She shows that as the erotic thriller plays out the sexual fantasies of contemporary America, it also provides a vehicle for marketing those fantasies globally.
