Just by reading and applying the easy-to-follow processes in Making Money Through Buy-to-Let in South Africa, you will realise that ordinary people can become extraordinary. This book explains why buy-to-let property investment is the only sensible opportunity to earn an inflation-linked, passive income for the rest of your life. It gives ordinary South Africans the hope that they might enjoy a financially secure retirement by building a substantial property portfolio, either when they start at a very young age or by supplementing their lifetime savings or pension pay-out at a later stage. Making Money Through Buy-to-Let in South Africa addresses all the questions would-be property investors would ask, including how to establish legal entities; determine which properties have the best return on investment; leverage other people's money and use very little of their own; obtain finance and register a bond; manage the transfer process; and select and manage the best tenants. Making Money Through Buy-to-Let in South Africa is written for the ordinary person, in everyday language, and guides you step by step through the entire process of property investment so that you, too, can become financially independent.

Smith, together with Marja Elsinga, Ong Seow Eng, Lorna Fox O'Mahony and Susan Wachter, and a multi-disciplinary editorial team of 20 world-class scholars in all. A broad and inclusive table of contents signals (or testifies to) detailed investigation of historical and theoretical material as well as in-depth analysis of current issues. This seven-volume set contains over 500 entries, listed alphabetically, but grouped into seven thematic sections including methods and approaches; economics and finance; environments; home and homelessness; institutions; policy; and welfare and well-being. Housing professionals, both academics and practitioners, will find The International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home useful for teaching, discovery, and research needs. International in scope, engaging with trends in every world region The editorial board and contributors are drawn from a wide constituency, collating expertise from academics, policy makers, professionals and practitioners, and from every key center for housing research. Every entry stands alone on its merits and is accessed alphabetically, yet each is fully cross-referenced, and attached to one of seven thematic categories whose 'wholes' far exceed the sum of their parts.

This book analyzes how and under what conditions collaborating corporations can effectively manage relationships with their suppliers in order to decrease the risk of suppliers' noncompliance with codes of conduct and standards. In so doing, it represents an important addition to the management literature on corporate social responsibility in global supply chains - which is highly topical at a time when companies are increasingly aware of the social and environmental aspects of global sourcing. After an opening systematic review of the literature on agency theory and supply chain management, it explores the rationale underlying collaboration among competitors, and the most critical aspects of such collaboration, in depth. Thanks to the book's use of real-life examples, readers will learn how agency theory can help improve relationship management and address the major issues in sustainable global sourcing.

Making Money Through Buy-to-Let in South Africa Springer Studienarbeit aus dem Jahr 2014 im Fachbereich Organisation und Verwaltung, Note: 1,3, Hochschule für Technik, Wirtschaft und Gestaltung Konstanz, Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: Mit Beginn des 20. Jahrhunderts begann sich ein Fachbereich der Wirtschaftswissenschaften zu entwickeln, der gemeinhin als „Institutionenökonomik“ bekannt ist. Seinen Höhepunkt (gemessen an der Anzahl der veröffentlichten Fachartikel) erreichte dieses breit gefächerte Feld wohl in den 1970er Jahren, als sich angesehene Ökonomen mit immer neuen Gedanken in ihren Abhandlungen kritisch auseinandersetzten und gegenseitig widerlegten. Grundlegende Ansätze, die heute wie selbstverständlich in die Curricula der Betriebswirtschaft aufgenommen wurden, sind erst vor wenigen Jahrzehnten entwickelt worden und haben seitdem immens an Bedeutung gewonnen. Genannt seien hier beispielsweise der Property-Rights-Ansatz, der Transaktionskostenansatz und die Principal-Agent-Theorie. Die Hauptvertreter der Verfügungsrechtstheorie, Armen A. Alchian und Harold Demsetz, erörterten in ihrem Artikel „Production, Information Costs, and Economic Organization“ von 1972 die Wirkung eines „moral code of conduct“, dessen Idee einige Jahre später von Josef Wieland aufgegriffen und weiterentwickelt wurde. Dieser Gedanke ist Hauptbestandteil dieser Ausarbeitung und soll dabei auch auf die Principal-Agent-Theorie übertragen werden. Im Folgenden sollen zunächst die entscheidenden Begriffe fachlich definiert werden, um ein einheitliches Verständnis zu ermöglichen. Daraufhin wird die Idee des code of conduct erläutert und mögliche Wirkungen in der Zusammenarbeit einzelner Individuen diskutiert.

The book explains why the real estate and construction industries are organised in the ways they are and then relates those characteristics to long-term market behaviour. It covers market dynamics - supply and demand; the interaction of property development and construction - and examines institutions and market structures. Real estate development and construction tend to be separate subjects in the literature. But construction is an inevitable part of any property development process and so has a major influence on the institutional structure of development. Markets & Institutions in Real Estate & Construction argues that these structures are best explained as a series of modern economic theories, based on competition and current production technologies. offers focus and breadth, and deal with controversial debates economic arguments made accessible through a non-technical writing style presents long-run international comparison of property market behaviour reflects internationalisation of property and construction markets
