You can make Bath Bombs at home, Today. You get home from a long day of work. Your shoulders are achy; your back is sore, you have tension, stress, dry skin in places, oily skin in others, sinus pain, fatigue, and nausea. There are only two cures for you. Either you have a demon inside, and you need to call an exorcist, or you need to have a nice long soak in the tub. You decide on the second option. You draw a bath and begin to relax as the water begins to steam. You start to undress to get in when you look around for the missing ingredient. A bath bomb. Then you realize that you are out of bath bombs. You try and phone your partner, but they are not answering. You need a bath bomb! You get dressed again and leave the house. You drive to Lush and buy some bath bombs. You are a little annoyed at the price, and your shoulders begin to tense again, but you know that you need to pay a little extra if you want a quality bath product. You get home and are beginning to feel a little relieved. You smile at the thought of a long and luxurious bath. You get to the bathroom, and it is locked. You knock. Your partner is in there, taking advantage of the bath you had drawn for yourself. You wait, but they take forever. When they are done, most of the hot water is gone. You try to run another bath and drop the bath bomb into it. It fizzes half-heartedly and drops to the bottom. You get into your tepid bath and wash yourself. You go to bed that night and have two thoughts stock in your head. Your first thought is that this was "the worst day ever." Your second thought is "if only there was a better way, a way to get luxurious bath bombs at a fraction of the price, have them on hand when I want them, exactly suited to my needs, and ready to drop into my bath, solve my problems, and the problems of the world." You drift off to sleep without hope. HEY! Wake up! Do not go to sleep just yet, for I have the answer. There is a better way, and this book is going to show you what you never thought possible. Come with me to the land of dreams; where bath bombs are at your fingertips. With a few simple ingredients, most of which you will have in your home already, some tools, which may be in your kitchen, and a little effort (I have absolutely no doubt in your level of effort), you can create your own bath bombs. Don't believe me? Well, boy are you about to be wrong.

Bath Bombs CreateSpace A warm, relaxing bath is the ultimate cosy treat for unwinding after a hard day, or when muscles ache, or when winter holds everything in its icy grip. Bath worshippers everywhere will love the 15 bath bomb recipes contained in this book; they will transform bath time from an enjoyable experience to one that is truly pampering. A bath bomb is made from just three main ingredients: citric acid, bicarbonate of soda and water, which are mixed together, moulded and left to dry hard. When popped into a warm bath, the resulting 'bomb' fizzes and effervesces as it is immersed in the water, releasing any aromatic oils, herbs and butters you may have added to the mixture, and leaving the water fragrantly scented, soft and moisturising. The easy-to-follow instructions in this book will show you how to make a variety of delightful, aromatic bath bombs. We're sure you will enjoy making them and, more importantly, using them.
