Weaving outwards from a centripetal force of biographical stances, this book presents the collective perspectives of literacy researchers from Brunei, China, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Singapore, the Philippines and Taiwan. It represents the first all-Asian initiative to showcase the region's postcolonial, multilingual and multicultural narratives of literacy education. This book provides a much-needed platform that initiates important conversations about literacy as a sociocultural practice in a region that is both challenged and shaped by sociocultural influence unique to Asia's historical and geopolitical trajectory. Driven by the authors' lived experiences of becoming literate as well as their empirical research work in later years, each chapter brings decades of biographical narratives and collective empirical research findings to bear. Within the book are negotiations about literacy across and within home and school contexts; transactions of literature, text and reader; and considerations of the literacy policy-practice nexus. These trajectories, while divergent in their issues, come together as shared lived experience located in local contexts considered through global perspectives. As Asia looks set to become the 21st century's new economic and labour force, the need to understand the sociocultural milieu of this region cannot be understated. This book on literacy education in Asia contributes to the larger narrative.

Charlotte Perkins Gilman (1860-1935) ist das zweite Kind von Mary A. Finch und Frederick B. Perkins, einem Neffen von Harriet Beecher Stowe, der Autorin von "Onkel Toms Hütte". Der Vater, Schriftsteller und Bibliothekar, verlässt die Familie bald. Die Mutter schlägt die Familie mit Gelegenheitsarbeiten durch. Gilman besucht die Kunstgewerbeschule, danach entwirft sie Grußpostkarten und arbeitet als Hauslehrerin. 1884 heiratet sie den Kunstmaler Charles Walter Stetson und bekommt von ihm 1885 eine Tochter. Nach der Geburt hat Charlotte Perkins Gilman tiefe Depressionen. Ein Spezialist in Philadelphia verordnet ihr eine Ruhekur, bei der jegliche geistige Anstrengung eingeschränkt und das Schreiben untersagt ist. Durch diese Kur fühlt sie sich so zerrüttet, dass sie ihre Familie verlässt und zu einer Freundin nach Pasadena in Kalifornien flieht. 1892 veröffentlicht sie mit "Die gelbe Tapete" ihre erste Kurzgeschichte, die auf den Erfahrungen aus der Zeit ihrer Nervenkrise basiert. Die Veröffentlichung führt zu heftigen Reaktionen. "Die gelbe Tapete" gilt bis heute als literarisches Meisterwerk. Nach Charlotte Perkins Gilman 1934 an Brustkrebs erkrankt war, nahm sie sich ein Jahr später, mittels einer Überdosis Chloroform, das Leben.

Writing development and pedagogy is a high priority area, particularly with standardised testing showing declines in writing across time and through the years of schooling. However, to date there are relatively few texts for teachers and teacher educators which detail how best to enable the children to become confident, autonomous and agentic writers of the future. Developing Writers Across the Primary and Secondary Years provides cumulative insights into how writing develops and how it can be taught across years of compulsory schooling. This edited collection is a timely and original contribution, addressing a significant literacy need for teachers of writing across three key stages of writing development, covering early (4-7 years old), primary (7-12 years old) and secondary years (12-16 years old) in Anglophone countries. Each section addresses two broader themes — becoming a writer with a child-oriented focus and writing pedagogy with a teacher-oriented focus. Together, the book brings to bear rigorous research and deep professional understanding of the writing classroom. It offers a novel approach conceiving of writing development as a dynamic and multidimensional concept. Such an integrated interdisciplinary understanding enables pedagogical thinking and development to address more holistically the complex act of writing.

 p"Ein auch heute noch bedeutsamer Klassiker" Daily Express Sind wir Marionetten unserer Gene? Nach Richard Dawkins' vor über 30 Jahren entworfen und heute noch immer provozierender These steuern und dirigieren unsere von Generation zu Generation weitergegebenen Gene uns, um sich selbst zu erhalten. Alle biologischen Organismen dienen somit vor allem dem Überleben und der Unsterblichkeit der Erbanlagen und sind letztlich nur die "Einweg-Behälter" der "egoistischen" Gene. Sind wir Menschen also unserem Gen-Schicksal hilflos ausgeliefert? Dawkins bestreitet dies und macht uns Hoffnung: Seiner Meinung nach sind wir nämlich die einzige Spezies mit der Chance, gegen ihr genetisches Schicksal anzukämpfen. This Handbook is a comprehensive overview of English language education in Bangladesh. Presenting descriptive, theoretical, and empirical chapters as well as case studies, this Handbook, on the one hand, provides a comprehensive view of the English language teaching and learning scenario in Bangladesh, and on the other hand comes up with suggestions for possible decolonisation and de-elitisation of English in Bangladesh. The Handbook explores a wide range of diverse endogenous and exogenous topics, all related to English language teaching and learning in Bangladesh, and acquaints readers with different perspectives, operating from the macro to the micro levels. The theoretical frameworks used are drawn from applied linguistics, education, sociology, political science, critical geography, cultural studies, psychology, and economics. The chapters examine how much generalisability the theories have for the context of Bangladesh and how the empirical data can be interpreted through different theoretical lenses. There are six sections in the Handbook covering different dynamics of English language education practices in Bangladesh, from history, policy and practice to assessment, pedagogy and identity. It is an invaluable reference source for students, researchers, and policy makers interested in English language, ELT, TESOL, and applied linguistics.

This book explains why some Korean high school students sleep during English classes in spite of the emphasized value of English in their society. It examines how this sleeping-in-class phenomenon can be understood by means of such marginalized students' emic outlooks on themselves, the target language, their teachers, schools, and society/culture; and by means of the views of teachers who have experienced such in-class sleepers. To understand the phenomenon more holistically, it pursues a multi-disciplinary approach drawing on studies of demotivation and amotivation, psychological needs, and student experiences of schooling, as well as sociocultural theories of learning and agency and of interpersonal dynamics, among others. On the basis of a multi-modal analysis of interview data from the student and teacher participants, it theoretically interprets the phenomenon at the classroom ('micro-'), school ('meso-') and society-culture ('macro-') levels. Taking a humanistic/existential approach to education, it subsequently presents a number of cultural actions that it advocates implementing in a situation-sensitive manner to help in-class sleepers and their educational institutions awaken from their chronic slumber. Lastly, it presents practical and theoretical implications for more humanistic pedagogy, and global studies of student disengagement, in English-as-a-foreign-language classes.

Entdecken Sie 30 Jahre nach dem Mauerfall »Stasiland« neu. In einer Welt totaler Überwachung durch die Stasi erzählt die australische Autorin Anna Funder in ihrem internationalen Bestseller von mutigem Widerstand und der Macht des Gewissens. – Exklusiv mit einem aktuellen Nachwort der Autorin. Als Anna Funder 1987 zum ersten Mal nach Berlin kam, verliebte sie sich in die zweigeteilte Stadt. Nach dem Fall der Mauer kehrt sie zurück und trifft in Ostberlin überall Menschen, die den Mut besaßen, sich der Diktatur zu widersetzen. Sie trifft Miriam, die von Jugend an in Konflikt mit der Stasi lebt, einen alternden Rock-Star, der nach dem System »nicht mehr existierte« sowie einen jungen Stasi-Mitarbeiter, der den Verlauf der Mauer plante. Aber es gibt auch Spione und Stasi-Offiziere, die weiter an die »Firma« glauben. Mutig, offen und unbelastet, in einer perfekten Mischung von Einfühlung und Distanz, erzählt Funder deren spannende Geschichten, die unsere Gegenwart bis heute prägen. »Anna Funder untersucht auf menschlichste und einfühlsamste Weise Lebensgeschichten, die von der Staatssicherheit in Ostdeutschland zerstört wurden.« J.
