The School of Charity Hendrickson Publishers
 Reprint of the original, first published in 1873.
Let Us Break Bread Together Standard Publishing Company
 An indepth series of sermons and teachings on the holy sacrament of communion. Spurgeon, in his brilliance, uses a variety of scriptures that all relate to the eucharist to teach us about the importance of this Biblical practice and why we need to be observing it in either formal church settings or within small groups of fellow believers.
Till He Come Come to the Table
 In Come to the Banquet, twenty contributors bring many facets of the Lord's Supper to light. Drawn from a cross-section of denominations and traditions, from Methodists and Nazarenes to Presbyterians and Baptists, these meditations share a common faith, a high view of Scripture, and a deep commitment to the central role of the Lord's Supper in Christian living. The diverse approaches offer fresh stimulation for anyone preparing a communion message. Come to the Banquet also serves as devotional reading for church members preparing to take Communion or who want to learn more about the significance of the Lord's Supper. The spiritual truths serve up solid food for all who would come to the Lord's table. The practical messages in Come to the Banquet are arranged chronologically according to the church year, as well as for special events.

Meditations on the Lord's Supper Sophia Institute Press
 This is no ordinary collection of sermons on the topic of Communion. Charles Spurgeon made a sacred habit of partaking of the Lord's Supper with fellow believers every Sunday. In those moments he would present these short sermons to help focus everyone's attention on different facets and ways of experiencing the glorious mystery and beautiful gift of the sacrifice of Jesus. Spurgeon found that this weekly observance never became a rote habit, but rather drew him deeper and deeper into the mystery and love of Christ. His devotion is reflected in these sermons, which inspire us today to approach the breaking of the bread and the drinking of the cup in a whole new way.

Food for the Journey BoD - Books on Demand

"A beautifully reflective book--an allegorical, poetic masterpiece about communion that will enrich the life of the Christian whether a new or seasoned follower. A gem of a read that can be read, re-read, and shared with loved ones." -- Nonfiction Authors Association No matter where you are on your walk with God, this award-winning devotional on the Lord's Supper will: Draw you closer to the heart of God Make Communion more meaningful Enrich your experience with Christ Increase your sense of the sacred Provide strength for your journey. More than wine and bread, Communion is an oasis, a sacred time spent with Jesus at the Table. Written conversationally, Food for the Journey is enriched with insights gleaned from Bob's experiences with cultures around the world.

Christian Meditation Wipf and Stock Publishers

The meditations and sermons in this collection offer a rich and eloquent choice of ways to enhance the experience of communion throughout the church year.

Evangelical Principles and Practice Christian Focus Publications

A profound and spiritual reflection on the Nicene Creed, the basis of Catholic belief. These meditations, based upon the principal articles of the Nicene Creed, were originally presented by Evelyn Underhill (1875 -1941) at a retreat she conducted at her beloved Pleshy, a small village in England that was the site of her conversion to the Christian faith. The renewed interest in mysticism and spirituality today among Christians of all communions draws heavily from her work. The popularity and use of her books by scholar, lay people, and clergy attest to the originality of her writings and the helpfulness of her spiritual direction.

The Abiding Presence Рипол Классик

Fresh, beautifully written Communion meditations for use in local churches by anyone called upon to deliver a Communion meditation. Also an ideal resource for personal devotion or as other types of readings in church programs or services. Meditations are brief, Scripture-based, beautifully written, yet simple.

"This do in Remembrance of me"; or, Sacramental Meditations Scepter Publishers

This useful resource addresses both the spiritual and practical aspects of communion for denominations in the free church tradition.

In The Sacrifice of Praise, Herman Bavinck pastorally guides the reader through the importance of the public profession of faith. Bavinck's careful treatment includes explorations of the unifying power of a common (ecumenical) confession of faith, the blessing of the diversity of believers, and reasonable instruction for those facing persecution for publicly identifying with Christ. Theological, practical, straightforward, and devotional, The Sacrifice of Praise gives readers a fresh appreciation for the importance of confessing one's faith. This is an updated English translation of the original Dutch edition and includes a new introduction and scriptural citations. "The Sacrifice of Praise gives us the impression of a spring flower, in the midst of the sharp, cold, fierce spring winds; an Elm in the desert of daily worries, hardships, quarrels, and murmurings. May the Lord God grant that it is the forerunner of a beautiful, refreshing, abundantly fruit-bearing summer." —From a 1901 review in De Bazuin (a Dutch religious paper)

Communion with the Friends of God Elm Hill

Ideal for use at the communion table or for personal devotions, the meditations and prayers that make up this collection are inspired by the lives and writings of six medieval women mystics:

Julian of Norwich, Mechthild of Magdeburg, Hildegard of Bingen, Margery Kempe, Hadewijch of Brabant, and Catherine of Siena. Through their lives and writings, we can share in communion as an experience of God's saving grace and we can celebrate that grace in Christ.

"Till He Come" CSS Publishing Company

Saint Jean-Baptiste Marie Vianney, known affectionately as The Curé d'Ars, was a peasant priest. In the aftermath of the French Revolution and Napoleonic rule, in a time of anti-clericalism and social and economic disarray, he was appointed parish priest of the obscure and dispirited village of Ars. Over the next forty years, he was the agent of a complete spiritual, social, and material reform of his parish, which became a joyful refuge and a place of pilgrimage. Men and women would travel for weeks simply to confess before the humble and holy man. His particular devotion to the Blessed Sacrament is manifest in this book of twenty-seven meditations, which had its first English edition two years before his canonization in 1925. St. John is now celebrated as the patron of parish priests.

The Word Makes Words Church Publishing, Inc.

The cross and empty tomb form the center of the Christian faith. The church celebrates these two events in what is traditionally referred to as the Lord's Supper. It is the custom in some Christian traditions to have a brief meditation related to the Lord's Supper immediately prior to participation. These may be given by the pastor or by a layperson who presides over the ceremony. This book is a series of meditations delivered prior to the celebration of the Lord's Supper. It is our hope that they will be useful for laypeople who perform this service. They may also be helpful as private meditations on the central events of the Christian faith.

The Sacrifice of Praise College Press

Hudson Taylor's classic explanation of the Song of Solomon as a marriage of love between Jesus and his Church.

Prayers & meditations for the holy communion Ignatius Press

For many years, whether at home or abroad, it was Mr. Spurgeon's constant custom to observe the ordinance of the Lord's supper every Sabbath-day, unless illness prevented. This he believed to be in accordance with apostolic precedent; and it was his oft-repeated testimony that the more frequently he obeyed his Lord's command, "This do in remembrance of Me," the more precious did his Saviour become to him, while the memorial celebration itself proved increasingly helpful and instructive as the years rolled by. Several of the discourses here published were delivered to thousands of communicants in the Metropolitan Tabernacle, while others were addressed to the little companies of Christians, -of different denominations, and of various nationalities, -who gathered around the communion table in Mr. Spurgeon's sitting-room at Mentone. The addresses cover a wide range of subjects; but all of them speak more or less fully of the great atoning sacrifice of which the broken bread and the filled cup are the simple yet significant symbols. MR. SPURGEON had intended to publish a selection of his Communion Addresses; so this volume may be regarded as another of the precious literary legacies bequeathed by him to his brethren and sisters in Christ who have yet to tarry a while here below. It is hoped that these sermonettes will be the means of deepening the spiritual life of many believers, and that they will suggest suitable themes for meditation and discourse to those who have the privilege and responsibility of presiding at the ordinance.

The Cross of Christ, Or, Meditations on the Death and Passion of Our Blessed Lord and Savior Baker Publishing Group (MI)

No occasion offers greater opportunity or a more imposing challenge for communicating the gospel than Holy Communion.

The sacrament itself takes one to the very heart of the Christian faith. What a pastor says to congregants who come to share the Eucharist ought to focus on the central realities of Christian truth. And it needs to be said succinctly! Scripture records numerous conversations Jesus held around the dinner table: with Matthew and Zacchaeus; in Simon the Pharisee's home; meals shared with his special friends Mary, Martha, and Lazarus. Well known are his feeding of the multitude with the loaves and fish and his Last Supper with the disciples. For Jesus mealtime was uniquely an occasion for God's truth to be shared and for significant decision-making to take place. This book offers messages that provide themes, ideas, and illustrations appropriate for Holy Communion that pastors and lay persons will find helpful. Speaking out of the heart of the Christian faith and from the insights of a successful pastor; Robert Stanley has given us a most helpful resource. Here is a conversation starter for adult study groups, a book for quiet reading by any searching Christian, and a model for pastors on how to enrich the communion service. Bishop David I. Lawson Conversations Over Bread And Wine is an inspiring and amazingly useful guide for everyone who wants to be serious about his or her spiritual journey... This is an excellent book! Rev. DeWane Zimmerman Robert A. Stanley has over a 40-year period been the pastor of churches throughout California and Arizona. He served for six years as United Methodist Superintendent of the Tucson District. He is a graduate of Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, from which he received the Master of Divinity degree.

Meditations and Prayers appropriate to the Holy Communion ... Fourth edition, enlarged Gideon House Books
While von Balthasar's classic Prayer is unparalleled in its development of the Trinitarian, Christological, Mariological and ecclesiological dimensions of prayer, Christian Meditation is a short, readable and eminently practical guide to that form of prayer which God's revelation in Jesus Christ has made indispensable: meditation on the word of God revealing the inner depths of God to man and--since it comes from God made man-- the inner depths of man to himself. In a treatment that is both fresh and profound, Balthasar describes the central elements of all Christian meditation, provides a guide for making the meditation and then points the way to the union that prayer achieves in the footsteps of Mary, within the Church and in and for the world. "Consequently, Christian meditation is entirely trinitarian and at the same time entirely human. In order to find God, no one need reject being human personally or socially, but in order to find God all must see the world and themselves in the Holy Spirit as they are in God's sight." - Hans Urs von Balthasar

Meditations for Passion Week Createspace Independent Publishing Platform
Brief Meditations When the Church Is Gathered Around the Lord's Table provides enough material to fill a year with fresh inspirations for the Lord's Supper. In his career as a Christian Church minister, Gary G. Jenkins was tasked with the creation of Communion Meditations as a basic component of worship in all churches of the Campbellite Movement. Most of these meditations should be shared in no more than 60 seconds. This does several things. (a) It enables the one charged with this responsibility to memorize without great difficulty what will be said. It can then be shared without obviously reading the material. (b) It suggests a thought, but leaves the greater burden of participation upon each individual Christian. The Lord's Table is indeed then the center of our attention. These brief Communion Meditations are shared in the hope that they can meet a need and direct our attention afresh to "Jesus Christ - bleeding - upon the earth He made." By His blood our sins are covered. A testimony "until He comes again."
