"Not a rapist" Is a small love story, based on a rural area of Rajasthan this is a story of friendship, family and first love of our life. It captures the small nuances of the village life. It shows us their old traditions, their festivals and skid's. It also have an old rivalry and casteism. It has coldness of winter and some unforgettable rainy days, alongside a cricket match that you will never forget. This story is high on human emotions, while the main conflict of this story is a girl's will power to take a stand for truth against the society. It's a story of a brave girl who fights against her own family to serve justice to a person who's convicted for her rape.

Music in Contemporary Indian Film: Memory, Voice, Identity provides a rich and detailed look into the unique dimensions of music in Indian film. Music is at the center of Indian cinema, and India's film music industry has a far-reaching impact on popular, folk, and classical music across the subcontinent and the South Asian diaspora. In twelve essays written by an international array of scholars, this book explores the social, cultural, and musical aspects of the industry, including both the traditional center of "Bollywood" and regional film-making. Concentrating on films and songs created in contemporary, post-liberalization India, this book will appeal to classes in film studies, media studies, and world music, as well as all fans of Indian films.

Music in Contemporary Indian Film Ukiyoto Publishing

A rare compilation of hand-printed as well as digitalized landmark Hindi film posters from the 1930s to the present - both tracing the journey of an art form and the evolution of cinema in India. The text accompanying each poster carries a synopsis, banner, details of cast and technical crew, date of release, famous songs, awards won, and some lesser-known anecdotes about the film. The posters are from young Hindi film buff, S M M Ausaja's personal collection of posters, lobby cards, record album covers and other memorabilia.

Senior journalist, writer, and filmmaker Maann Singh Deep is a popular name in cinema and journalism as well. By joining the film industry, besides making successful films such as 'Gunahgaar', 'Jurmana', 'Raja Bhaiya', 'Krishnavatar', 'Karantikshetra' and 'Gahri Chaal', he also produced a TV Serial "Ashiyaana", aired on Doordarshan National Channel, which was a very popular serial of that time. In the early years of life, the writer started his career as a journalist and in addition to the Times of India, Hindustan Times and Anand Bazar Patrika Group, he wrote regular stories and poems in hundreds of other journals of India's other publishing house. He continued the amazing love associated with writing, despite being a writer-producer. Written in the same period, the writer's 4 main novels are 'Ret Ka Mahal', 'Phir Lautati Zindagi', 'Sapno ki Talaash' and 'Meri Tutu'. Leading towards continuous writing, Maan Singh Deep, has given unique contribution to literature. The film world is called a dream world. The common perception of people living in this world is that most people in the film world live their lives by masking their faces, like as they have come from another world. There are very few people who are related to reality, they neither do any show-off nor they deceive anyone, but most of the people have put a mask on their face. This book is a memorandum of the author of "Bollywood Secrets". Whatever has happened, the author has presented it very honestly in this book. After reading this book, readers will have an opportunity to learn a lot about the people of the film world and to understand many other things. This book contains such an interesting memoir that you have never read in any of the film journals.

Encyclopedia Indica BollySwar: 1991 - 2000

Between 1931 and 2000, India's popular cinema steadily overcame Hollywood domination. Bollywood, the film industry centered in Mumbai, became nothing less than a global cultural juggernaut. But Bollywood is merely one part of the country's prolific, multilingual cinema. Unruly Cinema looks at the complex series of events that allowed the entire Indian film industry to defy attempts to control, reform, and refine it in the twentieth century and beyond. Rini Bhattacharya Mehta considers four aspects of Indian cinema's complicated history. She begins with the industry's surprising, market-driven triumph over imports from Hollywood and elsewhere in the 1930s. From there she explores how the nationalist social melodrama outwitted the government with its 1950s cinematic lyrical manifestoes. In the 1970s, an action cinema centered on the angry young male co-opted the voice of the oppressed. Finally, Mehta examines Indian film's discovery of the global neoliberal aesthetic that encouraged the emergence of Bollywood.

'Wheels Under Our Feet' is the story of three restless young people who junk the society's syllabus for finding love and decide to follow their heart. Ishaan, a popular college going boy, wants nothing but just a love in his life. The rest he's going to figure out along the way. Anvita, a quintessential girl next door, has been around the block a few times and knows the scene and all. Sana, who's dying to break open her bars and fly, knows what's right for her, but a little experimenting never hurt anybody, did it? When their lives crisscross, their beliefs get challenged and their love gets tested. We all want it all..the love, the attraction, the relationship, the commitment. But when we get it, it may not be in the way we recognize.

BollySwar is a decade-wise compendium of information about the music of Hindi films. Volume 8 chronicles the Hindi film music of the decade between 2001 and 2010. This volume catalogues more than 1000 films and 8000 songs, involving more than 2000 music directors, lyricists and singers. An overview of the decade highlights the key artists of the decade - music directors, lyricists and singers - and discusses the emerging trends in Hindi film music. A yearly review provides listings of the year's top artists and songs and describes the key milestones of the year in Hindi film music. The bulk of the book provides the song listing of every Hindi film album released in the decade. Basic information about each film's cast and crew is provided and detailed music credits are provided. Where available, music credits go beyond information regarding music directors, lyricists and singers, and include the names of session musicians, assistants, programmers, arrangers, mixers, recordists, etc. Where applicable, music related awards are listed. Interesting trivia is listed for most films, more than 1500 in all. This includes information about artist debuts, plagiarised or sampled songs, controversies and stories behind the making of the film and its music. This book is primarily meant as a quick reference for people looking for information related to a Hindi film or a song, but readers can also browse through the book to get an overview of the events that shaped Bollywood music in the decade. Given that Hindi films are a reflection of the Indian society, the reader can also glean insights about the country's socio-political and cultural environment from the book.
