Autofiction - Wikipedia Autofiction Hitomi Kanehara love Hitomi Kanehara and everything that she does is ripe with brilliance. Considering she wrote "Auto-Fiction" at around the age of 22, it's incredible to think of how deep this book really is. And knowing the author somewhat, she is a depressed soul and has had parts of her life that invariably seep into all her literary works. Autofiction: Hitomi Kanehara, David James Karashima ... Hitomi Kanehara shot to fame in Japan with her debut novel, Snakes and Earrings, which won the prestigious Akutagawa prize while she was just 20 years old (she is, I suspect, a partial inspiration for Konoha Inoue in Mizuki Nomura's Book Girl series). That novel tells the tale of a delinquent young woman leading a hard-knock life on the streets of Tokyo. Autofiction by Hitomi Kanehara - Goodreads On a different note, Hitomi Kanehara is a wonderfully thought provoking author and I urge others to read her books if they feel that they're up to it.
