A Stand-Alone New Adult Romance Comedy Drama by bestselling

author Sherry Soule Reese Sinclair is a compulsive liar, who isn't interested in falling in love again. Been there, done that, and she has the pulverized heart to prove it. Leaving behind a string of sucky romantic choices, she transfers to a new college her sophomore year. All Reese wants to do is pledge a sorority, stay focused on her classes, and swear off men. Tell that to Cole Prescott, the incredibly gorgeous complication that threatens to crush her newfound resolve. Keeping him in the "friend zone" won't be easy, especially when the sizzling chemistry between them is so damn combustible. But that's not Reese's biggest problem. While pledging Zeta Beta, her life gets flipped horribly upside down by a series of ominous threats, nasty rumors, and even blackmail. And the only place she finds comfort is in the arms of the off-limits frat boy she should be avoiding. So unless Reese can prove her innocence to that ultra-saucy sorority, she risks losing the future she's fought so hard to rebuild. Resigned to the fate of the Greek gods, Reese might not be able to outrageously lie her way out of this epic disaster. But hey, no one ever said college and boys were gonna be easy... Please scroll up and buy a copy now! Note: *No F-bombs, graphic sex, or explicit violence. This book was formerly titled, "Smash Into You"

Custodians of the Hummingbird By Al Kent Al Kent was born Albert Prentis Hamilton on December 8, 1939. As a singer, Kent's proudest moment was in the summer of 1955. Al and his brother, Bobby Recco Hamilton, went to New York City and, through a series of auditions, Al Kent made the final cut to a Broadway play. According to estimates, a group of about one hundred were involved and participated in the process of eliminations. At the end of the day only seven were standing. Al became the protagonist. Other cherished memories include Al recording most of Jackie Wilson's hit records before Jackie did. The songs were "Lonely Teardrops," "That's Why," and "Am I the Man." Al did his craft in a grand style and has sung since he was twelve. He began around Detroit and recorded for the Checker record label, a subsidiary of Chess Records in Chicago. Al wrote songs for many established artists, including Spanky Wilson, Reflections, Jackie Wilson, Fantastic Four, Gladys Knight and the Pips, Royal Jokers, Edwin Starr, J. J. Barnes, Ronnie McNair, Four Tops, David and Jimmy Ruffin, the Detroit Emeralds, Freddy Gorman, Gloria Taylor, the Flaming Embers, the Supremes, the Debonaires, San Remo's Golden Strings and for himself. His greatest asset is undoubtedly his ability to listen intently to other's ideals. His biggest dream is to direct a major movie for the big screen.

is an original and provocative study of the literature of the Romantic period with an introduction by Raymond Williams. Roger Sales concentrates his analysis on two related themes. The first, the politics of pastoral, analyses the use of this genre by both established writers and poets who were enormously popular in their time, but who are now less well known. The author argues that all literary treatments of rural society in this period make political statements, particularly when they displace or disguise the economic facts of life. His second theme, the theatre of politics, introduces the reader to some of the main political events of the period, and demonstrates how their form and presentation can illuminate some of the literature of the period. This book will be of interest to students and teachers of English literature.

Trust no one. Danger, romance and excitement await in the unputdownable and addictive sequel to Crave, by New York Times bestselling author Tracy Wolff. When she arrived at Katmere Academy, mortal Grace's world turned upside down. Now back at the school, she is haunted by fragments of days she doesn't remember living, as she struggles to understand who, or what, she really is. Finally reunited with Jaxon, Grace begins to feel safe again - until Jaxon's brother, Hudson, reappears with a vengeance. He insists there are secrets Grace doesn't know, threatening to drive a wedge between her and Jaxon forever. But there are far worse enemies at their doorstep - and the only thing Hudson and Jaxon can agree on is that leaving Katmere would mean Grace's certain death. Unless they can defeat an unspeakable evil, everyone's lives are at risk. But winning will require a sacrifice. And it could be more than they can give. ***

Praise for the Crave series: 'Fandom's new favorite vampire romance obsession' Hypable 'Throw in some deadly intrigue to mingle with the dark secret Jaxon bears, and you've got a recipe for YA vampire success' Bustle 'Wolff has a masterpiece on her hands. It's as simple as that' Vocal.Media 'Wolff exquisitely delivers girl power, romance, and a swoon-worthy hero' Lynn Rush 'An addictive masterpiece!' This is one volume of a two-volume book. This novel is a political statement set within a story in the Vietnam War. The purpose of this book is to entertain, to educate and to give a message about the Vietnam War. The author has kept historical accuracy and realism to make this book meaningful. Inspiration for writing this book came from the author's experience of living in America with the Vietnam War and from the author's recollections of Soldiers who were drafted and who fought in the war. This book contains historic and well-known quotations about war that have been used in the dialogue. Some battlefield-action has been added so the reader has a balance of action scenes and political discussions on the war.
