 “Pillole di Musica” è un volume che raccoglie 41 articoli scritti per la rubrica “Classica & Dintorni” e pubblicati dal quotidiano “La Gazzetta di Modena”. Lo scopo di questi editoriali anche a puntate, sugli Autori della musica classica e della colonna sonora cinematografica e sulle loro opere più significative, era a carattere divulgativo, con l’intento d’appassionare i lettori su un argomento considerato ancora “di nicchia”. Per raggiungere lo scopo, nelle diverse biografie si sono evidenziati gli aspetti più “umani” dei grandi compositori, con una ricca presentazione di aneddoti e peculiarità quali i cibi preferiti o le ricette che per essi erano state create. Sulle composizioni si è seguito lo stesso stile, raccontandone la genesi e la corrispondenza di esse con il vissuto dell’Autore. Il tutto, ha prodotto una lettura veloce e anche divertente, oltre ad offrire informazioni e spunti di riflessione sulla creazione musicale, sui più grandi compositori quali Haendel, Respighi, Morricone, Williams, Puccini, Rozsa, Mascagni, Bernstein, Gershwin, Vivaldi, Bach, Haydn, Beethoven...

How the World's Religions Can Come Together Rosarium Publishing

Now a Netflix movie directed by Mike Flanagan (Oculus, Hush) and starring Carla Gugino and Bruce Greenwood. Master storyteller Stephen King presents this classic, terrifying #1 New York Times bestseller. When a game of seduction between a husband and wife ends in death, the nightmare has only begun... “And now the voice which spoke belonged to no one but herself. Oh my God, it said. Oh my God, I am all alone out here. I am all alone.” Once again, Jessie Burlingame has been talked into submitting to her husband Gerald’s kinky sex games—something that she’s frankly had enough of, and they never held much charm for her to begin with. So much for a “romantic getaway” at their secluded summer home. After Jessie is handcuffed to the bedposts—and Gerald crosses a line with his wife—the day ends with deadly consequences. Now Jessie is utterly trapped in an isolated lakeside house that has become her prison—and comes face-to-face with her deepest, darkest fears and memories. Her only company is that of the various voices filling her mind...as well as the shadows of nightfall that may conceal an imagined or very real threat right there with her...

Questo numero della rivista prende in esame l’antifascismo come uno degli orizzonti tematici che meglio consentono di mettere a fuoco i problematici rapporti tra il cinema e la storia in Italia. È infatti su tale terreno che più chiaramente si evidenzia la relazione “non riconciliata” tra i due ambiti soprattutto laddove essa si definisce nella continua rincorsa di un epos nazionale che proprio nel mito resistenziale tenta di rintracciare il suo terreno d'elezione. I saggi contenuti nel presente dossier si soffermano su un lungo e articolato percorso che va dalla ricerca della nuova identità nazionale passante attraverso il sacrificio cruento e la conseguente monumentalizzazione dei martiri della guerra attuata dal cinema del dopoguerra alla disillusione che sopraggiunge con la fine dell'unità resistenziale; dalla storicistica (quanto ideologica) esigenza espressa dalla produzione filmica dei primi anni '60 di porre il presente in continuità con il passato della guerra partigiana alla presa d'atto dell'incapacità di dare vita, come già accaduto per il Risorgimento, ad una vera e propria "grande narrazione" nazionale, fino al connubio tra contrapposizione generazionale e utopia che sostanzia il cinema più recente in cui è il concetto stesso di antifascismo a diventare di per sé problematico, aprendosi ad una serie di nuovi significati che i film, ma anche la televisione ed altri media di nuova generazione, faticano a interpretare.

The Orphan's Tale Scholastic Inc.
 Just after radio journalist Michela Canova finds out that her neighbour, Angela, has been murdered, she is asked to prepare a radio series on crimes against women. Researching the programmes, Michela is forced to confront the horror and violence of big city life. Did Angela drive her many admirers to the very limit of sexual frenzy until one of them exploded? And why does Michela see the same pattern of incitement and repulsion repeat itself in her own relationships? Dacia Maraini asks a fundamental question about the human condition: how can individuals escape patterns of domination, that are in place the world over? Her sophisticated answers show why Maraini is one of Europe's outstanding voices.

DISAPPEAR INTO THE WORLD OF THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLING CHOCOLAT

. . . 'So wise, so atmospheric, so beautifully written' Marian Keyes 'The most magical, stunningly beautiful novel' Joanna Cannon 'It will intrigue and charm readers every bit as much as Chocolat' Monica Ali ----- Faith. Secret. Magic. Murder...? Vianne Rocher has settled down. Lansquenet-sous-Tannes, the place that once rejected her, has finally become her home. With Rosette, her youngest child, she runs her chocolate shop in the square, talks to her friends on the river, is part of the community. Even Reynaud, the priest, has become a friend. But when old Narcisse, the florist, dies, leaving a parcel of land to Rosette and a written confession to Reynaud, the life of the sleepy village is once more thrown into disarray. Then the opening of a mysterious new shop in the place of the florist's across the square - one that mirrors the chocolaterie, and has a strange appeal of its own - seems to herald a change: a confrontation, a turbulence - even, perhaps, a murder . . . What will the wind blow in today? ----- Return to the world of the multi-million-copy bestselling Chocolat.... 'A writer whose wit and sharp observation enhances her engaging story-telling' Salley Vickers 'The most magical, stunningly beautiful novel . . . I sobbed at the end because I couldn't bear to leave. Joanne is truly one of the world's finest storytellers' Joanna Cannon 'A place of magic and mysteries, and Harris excels in this delicate balance of realism and enchantment . . . It will intrigue and charm readers every bit as much as Chocolat' Monica Ali 'Sheer pleasure from start to finish. The Strawberry Thief is a delight' James Runcie 'I devoured it in one go' Christopher Fowler 'Compelling, captivating, incredibly moving, The Strawberry Thief whirls you into a thrilling world you will never forget . . . A perfect novel that shimmers with brilliance and truth' Kate Williams Reconsidering Pavese Alpha Edition Teresa Numa, protagonista del romanzo, è davvero una ladra e la sua storia si svolge (a Roma e poi in diverse località d'Italia) in squallide pensioni, nei cinema di terza categoria, nelle prigioni in cui si respira lesbismo e violenza. E anche nel manicomio criminale di Pozzuoli. Teresa si muove tra truffatori, prostitute ed "esperti" del borseggio, ma rimane una persona semplice, allegra, a modo suo onesta e pudica. Nel mondo di Teresa la violenza e la sopraffazione sono quotidiane; l'amore è a pagamento, il sesso è merce di scambio; il lavoro non si trova mai, il denaro, quando c'è, appartiene agli altri, la fame invece è sempre presente Dacia Maraini, attraverso Teresa e gli altri personaggi di questo libro (scritto nel 1973), ci presenta un ritratto della società italiana nei primi anni Settanta, ancora vivissimo a distanza di tanto tempo.

No country, no culture, no person today is untouched by what happens in the rest of the world, and globalization presents many challenges. The Dalai Lama understands that the essential task of humanity in the twenty-first century must be to cultivate peaceful coexistence. In this book the Dalai Lama shows how in our globalized world, nations, cultures and individuals can find opportunities to connect through their shared human nature. All faiths turn to compassion as a guiding principle for living a good life. It is the responsibility of all people with an aspiration to spiritual perfection to help develop a deep recognition of the value of other faiths, and it is on that basis alone that we can cultivate genuine respect and cooperation. Towards the True Kinship of Faiths is a hopeful yet realistic look at how humanity can embrace a harmonious future.

Needful Things Sperling & Kupfer
 Quellestate a Roma faceva molto caldo. E quando Roma si arroventa perde la sua grande bellezza e si trasforma in una città dura, arrogante, coperta da un vapore insopportabile, segnata da odori di sangue e mentuccia. Qui c'è chi sopravvive rubando piante dagli androni dei portoni, chi curando gatti randagi e chi ascoltando jazz e rocknroll. Una giovane donna dai capelli rossi, un cronista esausto a caccia di tenerezze e un vecchio giornalista che sta perdendo la memoria si incrociano ai margini della scena di un crimine. Dove sfilano badanti, redattori di giornali che inseguono scoop, giardinieri che conoscono la vita segreta delle orchidee, Bill Evans, i Clash e Pasolini. È la Roma del quadrante sud, quella che guarda il mare attraverso il percorso del Tevere. Un pezzo di metropoli trasformato in una mappa di luoghi e sentimenti dove, nonostante lafa, crescono ancora le Aspidistre. E piccoli sogni di resurrezione e amore. «All'incrocio con Garbatella l'odore di mignotte, di pastarelle, di zuccheri. L'odore dei trigliceridi, amore, di una gallina che razzola, daia, di viscere, di fango, e tango, e via balliamo ora che piove. Daccapo, piove. E marriva l'odore del ghiaccio di tufo dall'Ardeatina, un melenso e brivido, gelo dossa, sarà la storia, il massacro delle Fosse, sarà ma arriva ed è pena, ed è nostalgia. Un dolore piccolo al centro del petto. L'odore del dolore. Sarà che svolto verso viale Marconi, salgo verso il Ponte Bianco che odora di notte buia, di fiori lasciati su piccole lapidi, di frenate mortali e ambulanze. Salgo, salgo. Salirò. E arrivo a casa e c'è un odore di vento, di basilico e di sugo e di melanzane. E mosciarelle, e di cani bagnati. E di benzina dei filippini che tengono aperta la Shell. E quindi di conchiglie. Il mare è poco oltre, in fondo.»

When talking about justice, we mean more than its day-to-day administration involving officials, institutions, and those most affected. We also refer to an ideal: a set of basic values which guide living together and infuse the distribution of rights and duties, options and obligations, freedoms and restrictions. Losing this reference point means the administration of justice will suffer too, by having lost its sense of direction. With thirty years' experience in the Italian judiciary and dozens of influential judicial inquiries to his name Gherardo Colombo reflects on the culture of justice and the profound meaning of rules. Without respecting rules, we cannot live in society.

The Silly Jelly-Fish Orion

Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post-war Italian, indeed post-war world cinema. In this book, author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images. Over the years, Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive, the factual and the imagined. His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine, shape, and reflect the national self. They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure, in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution. Rosi's logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer. This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history, politics, literature, and photography, along with production information gleaned from Rosi's personal archives and interviews. It examines Rosi's creative use of film as document, and as spectacle). It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi's work and that visually, compositionally, express his vision of history and the elusive "truth" of past and present social and political realities.

Gerald's Game HarperCollins Australia
 BONUS: This edition contains a The Coral Thief discussion guide and an excerpt from Rebecca Stott's Ghostwalk. NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY THE WASHINGTON POST AND BOOKLIST Paris, 1815. Daniel Connor, a young medical student from Edinburgh, has arrived to study anatomy at the Jardin des Plantes—only to realize that his letters of introduction and precious coral specimens, on which his tenure with the legendary Dr. Cuvier depends, have been stolen. His thief turns out to be a beautiful woman who lives in a shadowy realm of outlaws, philosophers, and émigrés. As Daniel falls in love with her, he discovers a radical theory of evolution that irrevocably changes his conception of the world.

The Mosaic Crimes Houghton Mifflin Harcourt

From journalist and author Sue Halpern comes a wry, observant look at contemporary life and its refugees.

Halpern's novel is an unforgettable tale of family...the kind you come from and the kind you create. People are drawn to libraries for all kinds of reasons. Most come for the books themselves, of course; some come to borrow companionship. For head librarian Kit, the public library in Riverton, New Hampshire, offers what she craves most: peace. Here, no one expects Kit to talk about the calamitous events that catapulted her out of what she thought was a settled, suburban life. She can simply submerge herself in her beloved books and try to forget her problems. But that changes when fifteen-year-old, home-schooled Sunny gets arrested for shoplifting a dictionary. The judge throws the book at Sunny—literally—assigning her to do community service at the library for the summer. Bright, curious, and eager to connect with someone other than her off-the-grid hippie parents, Sunny coaxes Kit out of her self-imposed isolation. They're joined by Rusty, a Wall Street high-flyer suddenly crashed to earth. In this little library that has become the heart of this small town, Kit, Sunny, and Rusty are drawn to each other, and to a cast of other offbeat regulars. As they come to terms with how their lives have unraveled, they also discover how they might knit them together again and finally reclaim their stories.

La ladra di Cagliostro Oxford University Press

In this sequel to the award-winning

FIGHTING RUBEN WOLFE, Cameron explores the ecstasy, the danger, and the cost of love. Cameron Wolfe is a loser. He knows it. He's the quiet one, not a soccer star like his brother Steve or a charming fighter with a new girl every week like his brother Rube. Cam would give anything to be near one of those girls, to love her and treat her right. He especially likes Rube's latest, Octavia, with her brilliant ideas and bright green eyes. But what woman like that would want a loser like him? Maybe Octavia would, Cam discovers. Maybe he'd even have something to say. And those maybes change everything: winning, loving, losing, the Wolfe brothers, and Cameron himself.
