What are Christmas and Easter all about? Thomas Nelson
Why Easter? is a concise, easy-to-read study of the very real questions people may have about Jesus and why his birth, death and resurrection are central to the Christian faith. Written by Nicky Gumbel, the pioneer of Alpha and vicar of HTB in London, it explores why we need Jesus and how he satisfies our hunger for meaning and purpose in life, for life beyond death, and for forgiveness. Exploring Jesus' claims, character and death, Nicky uses effortlessly uncomplicated language to talk about the freedom we receive from guilt, addition, and fear, and the freedom to know God, to love other people, and to change. Why Easter? is illustrated throughout by Charlie Mackesy, author of the best-selling book 'The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse'. The booklet is designed to be given away at Easter services and events and to anyone with questions about Jesus and the Christian faith. This expanded edition - which replaces the previous booklet that is no longer in print - includes a couple of excerpts from Nicky Gumbel's Bible in One Year, an ideal companion to reading the Bible, around the theme of Easter.

My Very First Easter Preparing My Heart

As we read the stories of the birth, death, and resurrection of Jesus it's easy to believe we are removed from the stories and observe the events from afar. In Holiday Biblical Characters:

Finding My Stories in the Stories of Christmas and Easter David Waddell, author of Characters of the Bible: Finding My Stories in Their Stories, once again correlates stories from his life and finds similarity with the characters in the stories of the Bible. He finds himself offering gifts to the Christ child and later denying that he even knows Him. In Holiday Biblical Characters: Finding My Stories in the Stories of Christmas and Easter, we can find comfort in knowing that while we are just like Biblical people, we too can know the grace God offers to all.

God is good! All the time! We had no idea we would be publishing the second book in the God is Good Series just a year after the first publication. This special edition of My Easter Companion is purely by the request of the Church of St. Clare, Staten Island, New York. Our vocational journey has been a journey of profound friendship not just with each other but more intimately with Jesus Christ. From the beginning, we were the tiniest among our colleagues and, therefore, confined to doing only little things. Of course, we did little things that made life flourish, like watering the orchard. Little did we know that God was preparing us to do little things that give life in little ways. It is in this capacity, our little ways, that we bring you the good news of love and peace. God is Good Series began with Easter because Easter is the greatest festival of Christians and it is also the feast of life. This special edition contains reflections on the Liturgical Readings of the Easter Season. The Sunday reflections are based on the Liturgical Year C whereas feast days are based on the liturgical calendar for A.D. 2019. As an invitation to you to open your Bible and read every day, we omit the biblical texts but provide the references. By this, you become our active companion in the reading of the word. You will also find basic information on Easter to help you celebrate Easter in a way that inspires faith, hope, love, peace, and joy. We hope that the Companion will be both instructional and spiritually edifying to our readers. Entrusting all our readers to the care of our Blessed Mother Mary, we hope to
