My life has completely changed after applying the power of gratitude to my life every single day. When you apply gratitude to your life you can experience the true manifestation of everything you want. When you shift your thoughts, behavior and beliefs, real magic starts to happen in your life. The identity of a person is revealed when they have a grateful heart. It is no secret the greatest law in the universe is the law of attraction, however the key is applying this law every single day is being consistent. When you are grateful and thankful with intention, you attract great things in your life. Likes attract likes. Gratitude is being grateful for what you already have; knowing better times and things are on the way. Gratitude is more than simply saying thank you, it is also about not complaining about your current situation, but rather being thankful for the experience. When we complain about things going wrong all the time, this creates a negative vibration and creates more of these situations for us. Think about if you have a morning that starts out negatively, doesn't it seem like the whole day you encounter one negative thing after another? So how do we turn things around? We start by not complaining at all, we accept things for how they are in this moment, knowing that good times are on their way. So, be thankful and be thankful with intention even for those things that are not going as desired. If gratitude can bring you happiness and good, then you will attract more good experiences and good feelings by being grateful. Start each day by being grateful because when we complain less we feel much happier. We should complain less about what we don't have and be more grateful about what we do have. This creates positive energy around us. Ask, believe, expect to receive with intentions. When you start to write in your gladiator in a skirt gratitude journal do so in a relaxed state, take a few deep breathes before you start writing the things you are most grateful and thankful and believe with faith and intention that what you are writing it shall come to you. Believe the universe will surround you with success today, connect you to people, places and things that will come in line with your desires. Do you wish you could be happier, have more abundance and achieve financial security? Do you wish you could have better health, wealth and wellness, better relationships, family happiness and more? This key is never wavering allow no doubt to enter into your thought process. Be consistent expecting the best each and every day. What you feed your mind the first 20 minutes of every morning will direct the spirit of your entire day so control your morning and you will control your day. Regardless of how that day is, your perception will be completely different because your spirit will receive it differently, as to be proactive and positive, and rather being reactive you will find yourself responding proactively to the exact same situation that you would have normally responded reactively.

THE MILLION COPY INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER Drawn from 3,000 years of the history of power, this is the definitive guide to help readers achieve for themselves what Queen Elizabeth I, Henry Kissinger, Louis XIV and Machiavelli learnt the hard way. Law 1: Never outshine the master Law 2: Never put too much trust in friends; learn how to use enemies Law 3: Conceal your intentions Law 4: Always say less than necessary. The text is bold and elegant, laid out in black and red throughout and replete with fables and unique word sculptures. The 48 laws are illustrated through the tactics, triumphs and failures of great figures from the past who have wielded - or been victimised by - power. _____ (From the Playboy interview with Jay-Z, April 2003)

PLAYBOY: Rap careers are usually over fast: one or two hits, then styles change and a new guy comes along. Why have you endured while other rappers haven't? JAY-Z: I would say that it's from still being able to relate to people. It's natural to lose yourself when you have success, to start surrounding yourself with fake people. In The 48 Laws of Power, it says the worst thing you can do is build a fortress around yourself. I still got the people who grew up with me, my cousin and my childhood friends. This guy right here (gestures to the studio manager), he's my friend, and he told me that one of my records, Volume Three, was wack. People set higher standards for me, and I love it.

At any given moment, you can be on the edge of a massive breakthrough, a quantum leap, or a monumental paradigm shift. Tiny adjustments to your thoughts, feelings, and actions can create a hugely impactful ripple effect that has the power to change your entire life. If you want to manifest anything into your life, you need to zero in on a few simple, foundational practices that, when practiced regularly, can help you attract whatever you want into your life, with ease. Manifestation is possible for everyone, but not everyone will pursue it. Why? Well... probably because it all seems too simple. It seems so simple, in fact, that many will write it off as "unimportant." Manifestation itself is not difficult, but in order for it to work for you, it requires a consistency of effort and a regular focus on what it is you picture attracting into your life. It may take time, yes; but the actual practice is simple. Often when things seem too simple, we assume they aren't powerful. On the contrary, if you're ready to shift, you're about to learn exactly how to manifest your desires into reality. As long as you're willing to commit to the practice and the process, you can see the law of manifestation work for you, too. Kathleen Cameron and Andrea Cox have mastered the art of manifestation. Through regular focus on the very principles you're about to experience inside this journal, they have perfected the art of manifestation and the key concept that sets the foundation for manifestation to occur: gratitude. Kathleen and Andrea are a product of the process you're about to learn. Case in point: they manifested each other into their respective energies for the sole purpose of creating the journal you hold in your hands right now. It began as a thought, it turned into a feeling, it became a visualization and then, it manifested into reality. Gratitude for Manifestation has the potential to unlock your manifesting power and put into practice the most fundamental manifestation techniques you need to attract everything you want into your life. Today can be just one day, or it can be day one. You have the power to decide.

Give Thanks: A Gratitude Journal Templeton Foundation Press

There are a lot of gratitude books out there, but none quite like this, which comes with actual gifts: a sign, a totem, an answer, and a present from the natural world! Most of us believe we can think our way out of problems. We believe that if we just exert enough mental effort, we will pull up a solution to whatever ails us. And that has gotten us nowhere. So in this book, we're going to forget thinking . . . and start thanking. This playful but easy practice has the power to reconnect us with our true nature. When we observe the world from a place of gratitude, when we use our attention to spot beauty and gaze at wonder, we tune in to a frequency of magic. This joy channel is the most powerful on the planet and has the capability to radically change our lives. Brazen gratitude provides a portal—an entry point—straight into the heart of the field of infinite possibilities described in Pam Grout's bestseller E-Squared. It enables you to align with the spaciousness of the cosmic energy field, the spaciousness that makes your life a love-shining prism. Thanking puts you on an energetic frequency—a vibration—that calls in miracles and will make you rich (in spirit), happy, and madly in love (with life). This book also offers a different perspective on abundance, which is not just financial capital. It shows readers how to grow and expand creative capital, social capital, rip-roaring good times capital, and much, much more!

Washington News Letter Strelbytskyy Multimedia Publishing

Leviathan or The Matter, Forme and Power of a Common-Wealth Ecclesiastical and Civil is a book written by an English materialist philosopher Thomas Hobbes about problems of the state existence and development. Leviathan is a name of a Bible monster, a symbol of nature powers that belittles a man. Hobbes uses this character to describe a powerful state ("God of the death"). He starts with a postulate about a natural human state ("the war of all against all") and develops the idea "man is a wolf to a man". When people stay for a long time in the position of an inevitable extermination they give a part of their natural rights, for the sake of their lives and general peace, according to an unspoken agreement to someone who is obliged to maintain a free usage of the rest of their rights - to the state. The state, a union of people, where the will of a single one (the state) is compulsory for everybody, has a task to regulate the relations between all the people. The book was banned several times in England and Russia.
