Do you know what makes a story great? All the best stories have a few things in common. First, we need the voice of a narrator or a storyteller. Then, add interesting characters, throw them into a risky setting, and get ready for a good dose of conflict. Give those characters a purpose or goal, and that's then the real action begins. Story is our calling. It is also the next generation's best chance of identifying with the Church and changing the world. As we become storytellers, we learn to see the world in terms of stories being lived and told. We discover deeper insights into God, ourselves, and others. God's story is happening. We are right in the middle of a page-turner—and God is in it with us. Start seeing your life as a part of God's story and make some great adventures happen right now!

Bring the Bible to Your Students like Never Before Communicating the Scriptures is much like building a bridge. However, instead of ravines or rivers, the teacher must span both cultural boundaries and great gulfs of time between the present and the pasts of Moses, David, Jesus, and Paul. Though God's Word is always relevant, the teacher must help students see Scripture's vast treasures. The effective, engaging Bible teacher must, therefore, become creative. Together, Lawrence Richards and Gary Bredfeldt have created the ultimate guide to building bridges for those seeking to learn about God's Word. Creative Bible Teaching offers a five-step process by which Christian educators can construct a bridge across time, geography, and culture to help students of all ages connect with God's Word. This newly revised edition makes learning about God's Word more accessible for both teachers and students today. Simple, clear, and memorable, the method laid out in Creative Bible Teaching provides a sure-fire way of communicating God's Word in a way that sticks.

After the horrors and violence of the twentieth century, words can seem futile. In this reflection on the place of preaching today, Richard Lischer recognizes that our mass-communication culture is exhausted by words. Facing up to language's disappointments and dead ends, he opens a path to its true end. With chapters on vocation, interpretation, narration, and reconciliation, The End of Words shows how faithful reading of Scripture rather than flashy performance paves the way for effective preaching; Lischer challenges conventional storytelling with a deeper and more biblical view of narrative preaching. The ultimate purpose of preaching, he argues, is to speak God's peace, the message of reconciliation. While Lischer's End of Words will surely be invaluable to pastors and preachers, his honest, readable style will appeal to anyone concerned with speaking Christianly.

What a relief it would be to be set free from all that plagues us -- the inner struggle with anger, or contempt, the habitual sins. Is such an experience possible? John Eldredge believes it is, and in THE UTTER RELIEF OF HOLINESS, he shows readers how they can be that free, through the healing work of Christ in their lives. It begins when we discover what the salvation of Jesus Christ means for our own restoration and find that holiness is an expression of the healing of our humanity. Here is a book that explores the beauty of the genuine goodness available to us in Jesus Christ, and guides the reader through the process whereby God makes us whole and holy by his love. Readers will be relieved. Utterly.

Of the many books published on Psalm 23, it is somewhat surprising that there has not been one which uses photographs to elucidate the historical and cultural setting of this ancient psalm. Psalm 23: A Photo Commentary fills this gap by illustrating Psalm 23 with more than 60 high-quality photographs. The photographs include traditional cultural scenes, modern landscapes, and museum artifacts. The accompanying text explains the visual information in the photographs and relates it to Psalm 23 through a verse-by-verse commentary. The authors hold PhDs from Dallas Theological Seminary and have written extensively on the Bible and its cultural world.

Still-life painting has served artists for centuries as a sort of

"practice" activity where the "subjects" are totally cooperative, just sitting or standing inanimately in view. Vincent Van Gogh was able to take the genre to new heights of expression, infusing life and vitality into shoes, smoked fish, fruits, vegetables, books, human skulls, mugs and dishes -- in early years by unique juxtapositions of items, in later years by the technique of his swirling, pulsating background. In some of his finest work, the objects are inseparably linked with the human elements that inspired them, edging over into literary and social criticism. As with other motifs of Vincent Van Gogh's artistic repertoire, his still life paintings enjoyed their zenith in the five-year span from 1886-1890, which also marked the master's last years of life. The lively color, form, and swirling post-Impressionistic grace found in art of inanimate objects form another proof of Van Gogh's genius. NOTE: An appendix featuring "Living Life" of the artists' depictions of birds and animals, contrasting the "Still Life" images, is an extra bonus found at the end of this volume. STILL LIFE Images include: Still Life with Beer Mug and Fruit, 1881Cabbage, Potatoes and Wooden Shoes, 1881Still Life with Jugs, Bottle and a White Bowl, 1884"Bearded Man" Beer Mug, Coffee Mill and Pipe Pouch, 1884Still Life with Two Bags and a Bottle, 1884Still Life with Paint Brushes in a Flower Pot, 1884Still Life with Three Bottles and Earthenware, 1884Biblical Book of Isaiah and Zola's Novel, "Joie de Vivre," 1886Still Life with Fruits and Vegetables, 1885Still Life with Yellow Straw Hat, 1885Still Life with Potatoes in Bowl, 1885Still Life with Clay Pot, Bottle and Wooden Shoes, 1885Still Life with Five Bird Nests, 1885Skull with Lit Cigarette, 1885Plaster Model of a Female Torso, 1886Plaster Model of a Kneeling Man, 1886Still Life with Bottle, Glasses, Cheese and Bread, 1886Pair of Shoes I, 1886Still Life with Mackerels, Lemons and Tomatoes, 1886Still Life with Apple Basket, Meat and a Baguette, 1886Still Life with Mussels and Shrimp, 1886Three Pairs of Shoes, 1886Pair of Shoes II, 1887Pair of Shoes III, 1887Still Life with Baked Goods, 1887Crocuses in Basket, 1887Still Life with Lemons on a Plate, 1887Flower Pot with Chives, 1887Still Life with Absinthe, 1887Still Life with Bottle and Lemons on a Plate, 1887Hyacinth Bulbs in a Basket (Oil on Wood), 1887Still Life with Three Books (Naturalist Novels by Jean Richepin, Emile Zola & Edmond de Goncourt, Oil on Wood), 1887Still Life with Smoked Herrings and Garlic, 1887Still Life with Red Cabbage and Onions, 1887Still Life with French Novels and a Rose in a Glass, 1887Still Life with Grapes,
